Fast as the Wind Nat Gould, 1918 Nathaniel Gould 21 December 1857 25 July 1919 commonly known as Nat Gould was a British novelist Gould was born at Manchester Lancashire the only surviving child of Nathaniel Gould a tea merchant and his wife Mary ne Wright Both parents came from Derbyshire yeomen families The boy was indulgently brought up and well educated His father died just before he was to have left school and Gould tried first his father's tea trade and then farming at Bradbourne with his uncles Gould became a good horseman but a poor farmer In 1877 in reply to an advertisement he was given a position on the Newark Advertiser gaining a good all round knowledge of press work After a few years he became restless and in 1884 sailed for Australia where he became a reporter on the Brisbane Telegraph in its shipping commercial and racing departments In 1887 after disagreements with the Telegraph management Gould went to Sydney and worked on the Referee as Verax its horse racing editor Later Gould worked for the Sunday Times and Evening News Then followed 18 months at Bathurst as the editor of the Bathurst Times during which time he wrote his first novel With the Tide which appeared as a serial in the Referee He returned to Sydney and the Referee and wrote another six other novels for the same paper In 1891 his first novel With the Tide was published in book form in England under the title of The Double Event and was an immediate success it sold over 100 000 copies in its first ten years and was still in print in 1919 It was dramatized in Australia and had a long run in 1893 In 1895 Gould returned to England he had been 11 years in Australia and he felt that his experiences had made a man of him Gould was a modest man who did not take himself or his work too seriously His advice to emerging writers was to write about men and things you have met and seen take your characters from the busy world and your scenes from Nature But within its limits his work was very good He told a simple story exceedingly well in an unaffected way Many of his books were concerned with horse racing and no great originality of plot was to be expected but they were written with such flair and genuine interest that their countless readers took up each book as it was published confident in their belief that here was another rattling good story wikipedia org Wind Along the Waste Gladys Johnson,1921
