

SUPPER vs. DINNER

WHAT'S ON THE MENU?

Supper

- Refers to the evening meal, often in a more casual or regional context
- Example: "We're having a family supper tonight."
- More commonly used in the Southern United States and rural areas
- Can also refer to a light evening meal
- Example: "I had a simple supper of soup and bread."

Dinner

- Refers to the evening meal, often in a more formal or social context
- Example: "We're going out to dinner to celebrate our anniversary."
- More commonly used in urban areas and formal settings
- Often refers to a more substantial evening meal
- Example: "We had a fancy dinner with multiple courses."

Remember: "Supper" and "dinner" both refer to the evening meal, but "supper" is often used in a more casual or regional context, while "dinner" is often used in a more formal or social context.
