The Power to Write Caroline Joy Adams, 2003-04-01 A writing workshop in a book. Writing teacher and artist calligrapher Adams knows the tremendous power of the written word. And she has made it her mission to put into action her belief that everyone can experience and enjoy this power and the fruits of her or his own creativity. Many can write, but few do. Why? Fear stops us. Adams writes, "Fear not knowing how to get started and the lack of inspiration." Having discovered these truths while teaching her numerous writing workshops, Adams has put them into The Power to Write and created a writing workshop in a book. Readers can use it alone or form their own groups.

The Power of Pictures Beth Olshansky, 2008-04-18 In The Power of Pictures book and companion DVD, Beth Olshansky introduces teachers to her innovative art-based approach to literacy instruction. Widely practiced in classrooms across the country, the model has been proven by research to improve literacy achievement with a wide range of learners, especially those who struggle with verbal skills. At the heart of her approach is the Artists Writers Workshop. Through study of quality picture books and hands-on art experiences, students learn to visualize, paint pictures with words, and ultimately create their own extraordinary artistic and literary work. The book and DVD explain how any teacher can successfully use this process to enable all students, particularly low performers, to make dramatic gains in both reading and writing.

The Writer's Quotebook Jim Fisher, 2006 If you have ever stared at a page that remains stubbornly blank, if you have ever wondered why writers write, or whether good writers are born or made, if you are a novelist, playwright, poet, or journalist, or simply delight in the written word, The Writer's Quotebook is for you. Whether you keep it in your office, on your coffee table next to your keyboard, or your bed, this rich compendium of over one thousand quotations will inspire, invigorate, and illuminate the often challenging, sometimes humorous, but always fascinating task of those who bring words to life. From William Faulkner and Ernest Hemingway to Doris Lessing and Joyce Carol Oates, more than five hundred published writers put pen to paper on what the literary life is all about. Selections come from seasoned professionals as well as those just establishing their voice, and they represent a variety of nationalities and genres. The book is divided into three sections. The first part is devoted to the creative process, including thoughts on where writers get their ideas, the role of inspiration, what kind of people write, and where talent comes from. In part two, the subject shifts to writing as a craft. Here, authors ponder the creation of protagonists and points of view, the writing of dialogue, setting, and description creating plots and the anatomy of style The final third of the book deals with the challenges and rewards that come with the writing life Subjects in this section include the economic realities of writing classes conferences and workshops dealing with rejection and bad reviews writing habits and rituals despair alcohol suicide and fame Articulated with elegant metaphor in straightforward prose or with wry wit the carefully selected and thoughtfully organized quotations come together to form a narrative that entertains informs and in the case of aspiring writers shows the way to better writing
