Work In The Canadian Context:

Working Women in Canada Leslie Nichols, 2019-08-23 In this edited collection Leslie Nichols weaves together the contributions of accomplished and diverse scholars to offer an expansive and critical analysis of women's work in Canada. Students will use an intersectional approach to explore issues of gender, class, race, immigrant status, disability, sexual orientation, Indigeneity, age, and ethnicity in relation to employment. Drawing from case studies and extensive research, the text's eighteen chapters consider Canadian industries across a broad spectrum including political, academic, sport, sex trade, retail, and entrepreneurial work. Working Women in Canada is a relevant and in-depth look into the past, present, and future of women's responsibilities and professions in Canada. Undergraduate and graduate students in gender studies, labour studies, and sociology courses will benefit from this thorough and intersectional approach to the study of women's labour. The Work Importance Study in the Canadian Context Mary Catherine Casserly, 1980 The Routledge Handbook of Field Work Education in Social Work Rajendra Baikady, Sajid S. M., Varoshini Nadesan, M. Rezaul Islam, 2022-04-28 This Handbook provides an authoritative account of international fieldwork education in social work. It presents an overview of advances in research in social work field education through in-depth analyses and global case studies. Key features: Discusses critical issues in teaching social work and curriculum development; health care social work; stimulated learning; field education policies; needs, challenges, and solutions in fieldwork education; reflexivity; training; creativity; and partnership; resilience enhancement; integrated and holistic education for social workers; student experience; practice education; and ethical responsibility of social work field instructors. Covers social work field education across geographical regions: Asia and the Pacific, North and South America, Australia and Oceania, Europe, and major themes and trends from several countries: U.S.A., Canada, Australia, China, Hong Kong, Sweden, Aotearoa, New Zealand, England, Ukraine, Spain, Estonia, Italy, Ireland, Slovenia, Poland, Romania, Greece, Norway, Turkey, and the Czech Republic. Brings together international comparative perspectives on fieldwork education in social work from leading experts and social work educators. This Handbook will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of social work, development studies, social anthropology, sociology, and education. It will also be useful to educators and practitioners of social work in global institutions of higher studies as well as civil society organisations. Religious Literacies in Educational Contexts Sabrina D. Misir Hiralall, Kate E. Soules, 2025-03-27 Religious Literacies in Educational Contexts: Interdisciplinary Perspectives provides an overview of current scholarship on religious literacy and its practical applications in public life. As an emerging interdisciplinary field, religious literacy is vital in understanding how diverse religious beliefs shape social and political landscapes. This volume aims to deepen the conversation among scholars and practitioners by offering actionable recommendations for promoting religious literacy in educational contexts. Key questions addressed include: What does religious literacy mean in different contexts? Why is religious literacy important today? How can educators and scholars foster religious literacy in public settings? This book provides an exploration of these questions as the authors offer an overview of the current scholarship on religious literacy along with its applications in the classroom for both scholars and practitioners This book is designed for scholars educators and practitioners interested in the intersecting fields of religion education and public life highlighting the significance of religious literacy in various disciplines and contemporary issues by providing readers with insights and strategies to enhance their understanding and teaching of religious diversity Canada Ernest Ingles,1990 An Introduction to Social Work Practice in Canada Shankar A.
