Falk,Brian Drayton,2015-04-25 This volume

presents the work of trailblazing researchers and developers of electronic communities for professional learning. It illuminates the essential work behind the scenes in building successful online communities and scaffolding site interactions including content selection, creation and management, administrative structures, tools and interactive functionalities, the facilitation of discourse and emergent subcommunities and the development of online leadership. While each of the authors is well versed in Web site design, new technologies and collaborative Web tools, their work is deeply influenced and informed by scholarship which has unfolded over the last three decades about how professional learning takes place, particularly for math and science educators. The communities and authors featured provide different forms of online professional development for university professors, K-12 teachers and administrators among others. Their insights will be of interest to anyone designing, sustaining or studying electronic learning environments, regardless of the specific subject matter.

Contributors: Sasha A. Barab, Bertram Chip Bruce, Susan J. Doubler, Soo Young Lee, Flora McMartin, Jon Obuchowski, Andee Rubin, Rebecca K. Scheckler and Wesley Shumar.

Creating and Sustaining Online Professional Learning Communities explores the varied, conflicting, productive and unexpected ways that online communities can contribute to teacher professional development and offers concrete solutions.

From the Foreword by Marcia C. Linn, University of California, Berkeley: There is a lot to be learned from these insightful reflections from pioneers about designing and operating online learning communities for mathematics and science educators as they look behind the scenes at the human intuitions, decisions, social actions and re-designs that have kept these communities in productive motion.

Creating Transformative Online Communities in Higher Education Patrick R. Dempsey, 2021-06-28

Creating Transformative Online Communities in Higher Education provides a practical approach for building authentic learning experiences into the design and delivery of online teaching and learning systems. Combining three conceptually related ideas: complexity theory, transformative learning and the Community of Inquiry, this novel, highly applicable framework enables instructors to create compelling virtual learning experiences for students. As higher education faculty, instructional designers and graduate students shift from presenting information to creating experiences, the book offers an evidence-based disruption of the current thinking on and practice of course design.
