Confluence and Conflict Brian Hurley, 2023-12-04 Writers and intellectuals in modern Japan have long forged dialogues across the boundaries separating the spheres of literature and thought This book explores some of their most intellectually and aesthetically provocative connections in the volatile transwar years of the 1920s to 1950s Reading philosophical texts alongside literary writings the study links the intellectual side of literature to the literary dimensions of thought in contexts ranging from middlebrow writing to avant garde modernism and from the wartime left to the postwar right Chapters trace these dynamics through the novelist Tanizaki Jun ichir's collaboration with the nativist linguist Yamada Yoshio on a modern translation of The Tale of Genji the modernist writer Yokomitsu Riichi's dialogue with Kyoto School philosophers around the question of worldliness the Marxist poet Nakano Shigeharu's and the philosopher Tosaka Jun's thinking about prosaic everyday language and the postwar rumination on liberal society that surrounded the scholar Edwin McClellan while he translated Natsume S seki's classic 1914 novel Kokoro as a graduate student in the United States working with the famed economist Friedrich Hayek Revealing unexpected intersections of literature ideas and politics in a global transwar context the book concludes by turning to Murakami Haruki and the resonances of those intersections in a time closer to our own

Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1995 On magical realism in literature

Haruki Murakami and the Search for Self-Therapy Jonathan Dil, 2022-02-24 Haruki Murakami a global literary phenomenon has said that he started writing fiction as a means of self therapy What he has not discussed as much is what he needed self therapy for This book argues that by understanding more about why Murakami writes and by linking this with the question of how he writes readers can better understand what he writes Murakami's fiction in other words can be read as a search for self therapy In five chapters which explore Murakami's fourteen novels to date this book argues that there are four prominent therapeutic threads woven through Murakami's fiction that can be traced back to his personal traumas most notably Murakami's falling out with his late father and the death of a former girlfriend and which have also transcended them in significant ways as they have been transformed into literary fiction The first thread looks at the way melancholia must be worked through for mourning to occur and healing to happen the second thread looks at how symbolic acts of sacrifice can help to heal intergenerational trauma the third thread looks at the way people with avoidant attachment styles can begin to open themselves up to love again the fourth thread looks at how individuation can manifest as a response to nihilism Meticulously researched and written with sensitivity the result is a sophisticated exploration of Murakami's published novels as an evolving therapeutic project that will be of great value to all scholars of Japanese literature and culture Haruki Murakami and Philosophical Concepts Joseph Thomas Milburn, 2025-06-06 This book provides interdisciplinary perspectives on the work of the Japanese writer Haruki Murakami with a particular focus on the conceptual material of his work It seeks to answer the following questions Is there any philosophic material or concepts in the work of Haruki Murakami If so why are they important Does philosophic engagement add anything to the Murakami research field Equally does Murakami's fiction present us with anything valuable for the field of philosophy The volume uniquely develops the field of Murakami studies through acting as a forum for interdisciplinary researchers to share their perspective on his work Importantly it furthers the conversation on Murakami's philosophic value and through doing so is a must read not only for those interested in Japanese literature or culture but also for those interested in the productive space existing at the intersection of philosophy literature and psychoanalysis
