The Five Classics Confucius, 201-90 BC The Five Classics are five pre Qin Chinese books that form part of the traditional Confucian canon During the Western Han dynasty which adopted Confucianism as its official ideology these texts became part of the state sponsored curriculum It was during this period that the texts first began to be considered together as a set collection and to be called collectively the Five Classics

- I Ching The book contains a divination system comparable to Western geomancy or the West African If system In Western cultures and modern East Asia it is still widely used for this purpose
- Shu King A collection of documents and speeches alleged to have been written by rulers and officials of the early Zhou period and before It is possibly the oldest Chinese narrative and may date from the 6th century BC It includes examples of early Chinese prose
- The Shih King A collection of 305 poems divided into 160 folk songs 105 festal songs sung at court ceremonies and 40 hymns and eulogies sung at sacrifices to heroes and ancestral spirits of the royal house
- The Li Ki Describes ancient rites social forms and court ceremonies The version studied today is a reworked version compiled by scholars in the third century BC rather than the original text which is said to have been edited by Confucius himself
- Spring and Autumn Annals A historical record of the State of Lu Confucius's native state 722-481 BC

David Litwa,2016-10-03 Perhaps no declaration incites more theological and moral outrage than a human's claim to be divine Those who make this claim in ancient Jewish and Christian mythology are typically represented as the most hubristic and dangerous tyrants Their horrible punishments are predictable and still serve as morality tales in religious communities today But not all self deifiers are saddled with pride and fated to fall Some who claimed divinity stated a simple and direct truth Though reviled on earth misunderstood and even killed they received vindication and rose to the stars This book tells the stories of six self deifiers in their historical social and ideological contexts In the history of interpretation the initial three figures have been demonized as cosmic rebels the first human Adam Lucifer later identified with Satan and Yaldabaoth in gnostic mythology By contrast the final three have served as positive models for deification and divine favor Jesus in the gospel of John Simon of Samaria and Allogenes in the Nag Hammadi library In the end the line separating demonization from deification is dangerously thin drawn as it is by the unsteady hand of human valuation     *Holy-days and holidays, a treasury of historical material, sermons, poetry [&c.] relating to holy days and holidays, compiled by E.M.
