The Move To Europe

James Harvey Robinson, Charles Austin
Beard

The Move To Europe:

Gender, Movement and Safety Jasmin Lilian Diab, 2019-02-18 This book looks into the sexual assault of irregular illegal immigrant women and girls throughout their arrival to the European Union borders and borderlands between the period of 2011 and 2018 through an Intersectional lens It intends to analyze this sensitive human rights issue through grasping the cultural obstacles and procedures at European borders which have fueled the violation of this fragile migrant group's human rights while also supporting this argument with academic research statistical data and reports on irregular migration from international and regional organizations security mechanisms at borders and statistics on sexual abuse and exploitation during the aforementioned period It intends to explore the manner in which several factors and developments at European borders and in the borderlands have resulted in a more dangerous migration journey for these women and girls as well as the manner in which these developments further perpetuate the likelihood of sexual violence of migrants and female migrants in particular This book aims to comprehend the linkages between academic research and the supporting statistical information through the lens of Intersectionality Theory a theory which will allow for the issue to be tackled across its different layers and across all the intersections and overlaps these layers create This book highlights multiple instances of sexual violence throughout the journey and upon arrival of these migrant women and girls to the European borders and borderlands and subsequently emphasizes that these events further perpetuate the vulnerability to sexual assault for irregular migrant women due to the very illegal nature of their journeys Through this lens this process is examined across power dynamics security legal status and gender Through examining these realities and power systems it becomes evident that this particularly vulnerable group of women and girls from developing countries escaping war economic burdens and conflict are ostracized and subordinated in a number of interconnected patterns This book highlights a need for more gender sensitive policies because the group of women in question has close to no viable resource for justice within a system that currently acts against them and views them as criminal or illegal

Young EU Migrants in London in the Transition to Brexit Aija

Lulle, Laura Moroşanu, Russell King, 2022-08-09 London has long been a magnet for migrants millions of whom have been attracted by its economic educational and cultural roles as a truly global city This book examines recent European migration to the London region through the narrated experiences of a large number of younger migrants from old and new EU member states of varying educational and skill backgrounds The research opens multiple windows into the lives of young EU migrants from six different countries before and after the 2016 Referendum on Brexit A key concept which lies at the core of the analysis is the interrelationship between geographical mobility and the youth transition to adulthood Among the dimensions documented are study and employment trajectories housing and social inclusion identity and belonging and transnational ties By paying attention to young people's own accounts of their mobile lives the research pushes the boundaries of traditional understandings of youth transitions and life paths As an indispensable account of young EU migrants during the Brexit process the book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students across the social sciences especially those interested in migration youth studies and European studies as well as researchers and policy makers

Youth Labor in Transition Jacqueline O'Reilly, Janine Leschke, Renate Ortlieb, Martin Seeleib-Kaiser, Paola Villa, 2018-11-07

Exacerbated by the Great Recession youth transitions to employment and adulthood have become increasingly protracted precarious and differentiated by gender ethnicity and socioeconomic status

Youth Labor in Transition examines young people's integration into employment alongside the decisions and consequences of migrating to find work and later returning home

The authors identify key policy challenges for the future related to NEETS overeducation self employment and ethnic differences in outcomes

This illustrates the need to encompass a wider understanding of youth employment and job insecurity by including an analysis of economic production and how it relates to social reproduction of labor if policy intervention is to be effective

The mapping and extensive analysis in this book are the result of a 3 year European Union funded research project Strategic Transitions for Youth Labour in Europe or STYLE <http://www.style-research.eu> coordinated by Jacqueline O'Reilly

With an overall budget of just under 5 million euros and involving 25 research partners an international advisory network and local advisory boards of employers unions and policymakers and non governmental organizations from more than 20 European countries

STYLE is one of the largest European Commission funded research projects to exist on this topic

Consequently this book will appeal to an array of audiences including academic and policy researchers in sociology political science economics management studies and more particular labor market and social policy policy communities and bachelor's and master's level students in courses on European studies or any of the aforementioned subject areas
