Putting Theory into Practice in the Contemporary Classroom Becky McLaughlin, 2017-01-06 This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from Canada Europe the United Kingdom and the United States emerges from a growing interest in the ways postmodern theory can illuminate not just the products and ideas of high culture but also the ins and outs of everyday life Taking the university classroom broadly construed as a site of theoretical investigation this volume helps us to understand troublesome classroom dynamics as well as offering pedagogical strategies for dealing with them It also illuminates current pressures on higher education that find expression in the classroom As a forum for these issues these essays draw upon Deleuzian feminist Foucauldian and psychoanalytic approaches among others recognizing not only that these approaches are often in conflict but also that collectively they enhance our understanding of the classroom Important questions posed here include whether and if so how we can combine a Marxist or Foucauldian emphasis on the disciplinary and hegemonic practices of educational institutions with a Lacanian or Barthesian appreciation for the disruptive pleasures and drives that the unconscious produces within and through students teachers and classrooms Which theoretical and pedagogical innovations can help teachers and students to get the job done as well as to theorize the job to simultaneously practice education and imagine other forms and ends for education How can theory help us to historicize criticize and re draw the productive but sometimes disabling lines that make the classroom and its subjects A site for lively theoretical debate about these and related pedagogical issues this volume will prove useful for anyone wanting to reinterpret reinvent and reinvigorate the classroom

Theory Into Practice ,1962 Activity Theory in Practice Harry Daniels, Anne Edwards, Yrjö Engeström, Tony Gallagher, Sten R. Ludvigsen, 2013-05-13 This ground breaking book brings together cutting edge researchers who study the transformation of practice through the enhancement and transformation of expertise This is an important moment for such a contribution because expertise is in transition moving toward collaboration in inter organizational fields and continuous shaping of transformations To understand and master this transition powerful new conceptual tools are needed and are provided here The theoretical framework which has shaped these studies is Cultural Historical Activity Theory CHAT CHAT analyses how people and organisations learn to do something new and how both individuals and organisations change The theoretical and methodological tools used have their origins in the work of Lev Vygotsky and A N Leont'ev In recent years this body of work has aroused significant interest across the social sciences management and communication studies Working as part of an integrated international team the authors identify specific findings which are of direct interest to the academic community such as the analysis of vertical learning between operational and strategic levels within complex organizations the refinement of notions of identity and subject position within CHAT the introduction of the concept of labour power into CHAT the development of a method of analysing discourse which theoretically coheres with CHAT and the design of projects Activity Theory in Practice will be highly useful to practitioners
