Violence Between Intimate Partners Patterns Causes And Effects:

Violence Between Intimate Partners Albert P. Cardarelli,1997 Focusing on violence and abuse along the full spectrum of intimate relationships Covers different and same sex couples from dating and courtship through marriage This book examines the causes and effects of the violence current policy issues and the roles of law enforcement social services and the courts Crime and Justice at the Millennium Robert A. Silverman, Terence P. Thornberry, Bernard Cohen, Barry Krisberg,2013-03-09 Ira Lipman Marvin Wolfgang was the greatest criminologist in the United States of America in the last half of the 20th century if not the entire century We first met on March 3 1977 in Philadelphia I sought him out after his work with Edwin Newman s NBC Reports Violence in America He was a tender loving caring individual who loved excellence whether it be an intellectual challenge the arts or any other pursuit It is a great privilege to take part in honoring Marvin Wolfgang a great American Our approaches to the subject of crime came from different perspectives one as a researcher and the other as the founder of one of the world s largest security services companies We both wanted to understand the causes of crime and our discussions began a more than 21 year friendship based on mutual respect and shared values Dr Wolfgang s scholarship aimed for the goal of promoting a safer more prosperous society one in which economic opportunity replaced criminal enterprise He never saw crime in isolation but as part of a complex web of social relations Only by understanding the causes and patterns of crime can society find ways to prevent it Only through scholarship can the criminal justice community influence policy makers To encourage the innovative scholarship that marked Marvin s career Guardsmark established the Lipman Criminology Library at the University of Pennsylvania at his request and created a national criminology award in his name the Wolfgang Award for Distinguished Achievement in Criminology Autonomy, Gender, Politics Marilyn Friedman,2003-01-09 Women have historically been prevented from living autonomously by systematic injustice subordination and oppression The lingering effects of these practices have prompted many feminists to view autonomy with suspicion Here Marilyn Friedman defends the ideal of feminist autonomy In her eyes behavior is autonomous if it accords with the wants cares values or commitments that the actor has reaffirmed and is able to sustain in the face of opposition By her account autonomy is socially grounded yet also individualizing and sometimes socially disruptive qualities that can be ultimately advantageous for women Friedman applies the concept of autonomy to domains of special interest to women She defends the importance of autonomy in romantic love considers how social institutions should respond to women who choose to remain in abusive relationships and argues that liberal societies should tolerate minority cultural practices that violate women s rights so long as the women in question have chosen autonomously to live according to those practices Parent-Youth Relations Stephan Wilson, Gary W Peterson, Suzanne Steinmetz,2012-12-06 Explore the most fundamental human relationship between parent and child Western social science has long neglected to acknowledge that family relationships must always be examined from a culturally sensitive perspective Parent Youth Relations Cultural and Cross

Cultural Perspectives fills this void by exploring in depth the most fundamental human relationship between parent and child in different societies around the world. International experts provide a comprehensive collection of original research and theory on how parental styles and the effects of culture are interconnected. Written from diverse perspectives, this unique resource reveals deep insight into these relationships by focusing on the individuals, the structure of the family, and societal and cultural influences. Parental relations and cultural belief systems both play integral parts on how socialization and development occur in children. Parent Youth Relations Cultural and Cross Cultural Perspectives presents several viewpoints, some comparing similarities and differences across societies or nations, others exploring relationships within a single culture. This probing global look at parent youth relations provides sensitively nuanced information valuable for every professional or student in the social sciences. Detailed tables illustrate research data, while thorough bibliographies offer opportunities for further study. Parent Youth Relations Cultural and Cross Cultural Perspectives explores parenting style and its effects on children in Chinese culture, parenting style in problem solving situations in Hong Kong, cross national perspectives on parental acceptance/rejection theory, multinational studies of interparental conflict, parenting and adolescent functioning, the relationship between parenting behaviors and adolescent achievement in Chile and Ecuador, parent/adolescent relations and problem behaviors in Hungary, the Netherlands, Switzerland, and the United States, cross national analysis of family and school socialization and adolescent academic achievement, parent/child contact after divorce from the child's perspective, familial impacts on adolescent aggression and depression in Colombia, predicting Korean adolescents' sexual behavior from individual and family factors, parenting in Mexican society, relations with parents and friends during adolescence and early adulthood, parent/child relationships in childhood and adulthood and their effect on the parent's marriage, the effects of financial hardship, interparental conflict, and maternal parenting in Germany, and more original research studies. Parent Youth Relations Cultural and Cross Cultural Perspectives presents the freshest research available, along with extensive bibliographies providing essential reading for educators, advanced undergraduates, graduate students, and professionals in family studies, sociology, psychology, and anthropology.
