Violet Obsession:

Violet Obsession Yayoi Kusama, 1997 Critical Companion to Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2007 Toni Morrison winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1993 is perhaps the most important living American author This work examines Morrison s life and writing featuring critical analyses of her work and themes as well as entries on related topics and relevant people places and influences Norah Hoult's Poor Women! Kathleen P. Costello-Sullivan, 2016-12 Irish author Eleanor Norah Hoult 1898-1984 travelled in prominent literary circles and corresponded actively with some of the leading Irish authors of the early twentieth century including James Stephens Brigid Brophy Sean O Casey and Sean O Faolain Despite her reputation and a forty four year publishing career Hoult s oeuvre remains surprisingly neglected This edition seeks to rectify that critical oversight by introducing Hoult s short story collection Poor Women to a new generation of readers Hoult is often compared to writers such as Kate O Brien and Edna O Brien for her representations of the oppressive facets of Catholicism Less explored is her engagement with emotional paralysis and her detailed representations of widowhood and urban settings inviting comparison to literary giants James Joyce and Mary Lavin These similarities offer venues for further study Mrs. Keppel and Her Daughter Diana Souhami, 2014-10-14 An electrifying study of Mrs Keppel famously King Edward VII s mistress and of her daughter notoriously Vita Sackville West s lover Daily Telegraph UK A New York Times Notable Book Alice Keppel the married lover of Queen Victoria s eldest son and great grandmother to Camilla Parker Bowles was a key figure in Edwardian society With impeccable discretion she carried on as the king s mistress while lauding the Royal Family and the institution of marriage Hers was the acceptable face of adultery It brought her wealth power and status Alice s daughter Violet Trefusis had her own long and tempestuous affair with the author and aristocrat Vita Sackville West but it brought very different consequences Vita left her husband and family to travel abroad with Violet and their scandalous liaison threatened Violet s social standing and pitted her against her mother From memoirs diaries and letters Diana Souhami portrays this fascinating and intense mother daughter relationship Her story of these women their lovers and their lovers mothers highlights Edwardian and contemporary duplicity and double standards and goes to the heart of questions about sexual freedoms The Story of Jazz Justine Tally, 2001 Since its publication in 1992 Jazz probably Toni Morrison s most difficult novel to date has illicited a wide array of critical response Many of these analyses while both thoughtful and thought provoking have provided only partial or inherently inconclusive interpretations The title and certain of the author s own pronouncements have led other critics to focus on the music itself both as medium and aesthetic support for the narration Choosing an entirely different approach for The Story of Jazz Justine Tally further develops her hypothesis first elaborated in her study of Paradise that the Morrison trilogy is undergirded by the relationship of history memory and story and discusses jazz not as the music but as a metaphor for language and storytelling Taking her cue from the author s epigraph for the novel she discusses the relevance of storytelling to contemporary critics in many different fields explains

Morrison's choice of the hard-boiled detective genre as a ghost text for her novel and guides the reader through the intricacies of Bakhtinian theory in order to elucidate and ground her interpretation of this important text finally entering into a chapter-by-chapter analysis of the novel which leads to a surprising conclusion
