

81. THE VIPER, THE FROGS AND THE WATER SNAKE

A viper said to some water snakes, "The water is mine!" They both decided to settle the matter, once and for all, by a fight. The frogs who were the enemies of the water snake gave their support to the viper. When the day of announcing the winner came, the frogs began croaking, as they couldn't think of anything else to do. The viper won. Later, when the frogs asked the viper for their share, the viper began whistling, leaving the frogs confused. The viper told them, "I'm repaying you in the same manner by which you helped me!"

Moral: Always be fair to everyone.

82. THE LARKS IN THE CORNFIELD

A family of larks lived in a nest in a cornfield. Each day, as the mother lark went in search for food, she told the little larks to stay inside the nest and beware of the farmer. One day, the little larks heard the farmer telling his son, "The corn is ready to be cut. We must call our neighbours to help us to reap this field." The little larks got scared. When their mother returned, she got to know about everything. The mother lark smiled and said, "Don't be afraid." The next evening, when the mother lark came home, the little larks said, "Mother! The farmer came again. He said that he would reap this field tomorrow." Hearing this, she said, "My dear children, now we must leave this field tomorrow before the farmer arrives. When a man says he will do his job himself, he will surely do it."

Moral: Never rush to take decisions.
