A Life in Storytelling Binnie

Tate Wilkin, 2014-03-25 A Life in Storytelling contains the reflections and lessons from one of the most noted storytellers of our times. Fifty years of storytelling has provided Binnie Tate Wilkin with the experiences and insights to form the basis of a text for the storyteller, both for the professional librarian, teacher, or parent wanting to provide children with substance through story. The sections of the book are designed to provide background material for the art and craft of storytelling, the methods and uses of storytelling, sources and examples of stories, and a broad selection of over 100 stories, briefly annotated. Included are sections that explain how to derive or adapt stories from current events, history, or imaginative writings, and a detailed treatment in the use of dance in storytelling, a technique that if not invented by Wilkin has become a trademark of her approach. The treatment is always informal and personal and is interleaved with anecdotes drawn from the author's more than 50 years of storytelling.

Once Upon a Time Judy Freeman, 2007-10-30 Judy Freeman, author of the Books Kids Will Sit Still For series, gives practical how-to tips on how to tell a story and write and stage a Reader's Theater script that gets children involved with creative drama. Reader's theater teaches children how to become better listeners, enriches their thinking skills, and encourages their response to literature. Included are ideas on using folk and fairy tales, songs, chants, and nonsense rhymes, and a reader's theater script. Also included in this handbook are 400 plus annotated children's books every storyteller should know, 100 great titles for creative drama and reader's theater, and professional books and Web sites for storytelling, creative drama, and reader's theater.

Grades PreK-6 Judy Freeman, author of the Books Kids Will Sit Still For series, gives personal and practical how-to tips on how to learn and tell a story, how to act out a story using creative drama, and how to write and stage a Reader's Theater script.
