

The Two Ministries of Paul

1Co 9:19-22 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

The Challenges of Globalization Cornelius Torp,2014-09-01 In the mid nineteenth century a process began that appears from a present day perspective to have been the first wave of economic globalization Within a few decades global economic integration reached a level that equaled and in some respects surpassed that of the present day This book describes the interpenetration of the German economy with an emerging global economy before the First World War while also demonstrating the huge challenge posed by globalization to the society and politics of the German Empire The stakes for both the winners and losers of the intensifying world market played a major role in dividing German society into camps with conflicting socio economic priorities As foreign trade policy moved into the center stage of political debates the German government found it increasingly difficult to pursue a successful policy that avoided harming German exports and consumer interests while also seeking to placate a growing protectionist movement
