The Globalization Of Nothing:

The Globalization of Nothing 2 George Ritzer, 2007-01-18 The Globalization of Nothing is back in a revised and completely updated Second Edition In this reconceptualized volume author George Ritzer focuses his attention squarely on the processes of globalization and how they relate to McDonaldization This revision is shorter more concise and spends much less space on the Nothing Something continuum that he introduced in the First Edition

The Globalization of Nothing George Ritzer, 2003-07-17 George Ritzer theorizes in his provocative new book The Globalization of Nothing that the grand narrative or social story of this period is a movement from something to nothing Building on but going beyond his renowned McDonaldization thesis Ritzer contends that societies around the globe continue to move away from something defined as a social form that is generally indigenously conceived locally controlled and rich in distinctive content He argues that we are moving toward nothing that which is centrally controlled and conceived and relatively devoid of distinctive substance It is in the movement toward the globalization of nothing that something is lost More than likely that something is an indigenous custom a local store a familiar gathering place or simply personalized interaction Thus the central problem in the world today is defined as loss amidst monumental abundance of nothing The Globalization of Nothing takes the subject of globalization in new directions introducing terms such as grobalization the growing influence of for example American corporations throughout the world This book is structured around four sets of concepts addressing this issue places non places things non things people non people and services non services By drawing upon salient examples from everyday life George Ritzer invites the reader to examine the nuances of these concepts in conjunction with the paradoxes within the process of the globalization of nothing The Globalization of Nothing is ideal as a primary or supplemental text for courses in sociology anthropology communication business and related disciplines This book is also recommended for anyone interested in the critical study of contemporary social phenomena

The Consumption and Representation of Lifestyle Sports Belinda Wheaton, 2014-06-11 Since their emergence in the 1960s lifestyle sports also referred to as action sport extreme sports adventure sports have experienced unprecedented growth both in terms of participation and in their increased visibility across public and private space book seeks to explore the changing representation and consumption of lifestyle sport in the twenty first century The essays which cover a range of sports and geographical contexts including Brazil Europe North America and Australasia focus on three themes First essays scrutinise aspects of the commercialisation process and impact of the media reviewing and reconsidering theoretical frameworks to understand these processes The scholars here emphasise the need to move beyond simplistic understandings of commercialisation as co option and resistance to capture the complexity and messiness of the process and of the relationships between the cultural industries participants and consumers The second theme examines gender identity and representations exploring the potential of lifestyle sport to be a politically transformative space in relation to gender sexuality and race The last theme explores new theoretical directions in research on lifestyle sport including insights from philosophy sociology and cultural geography The themes the monograph addresses are wide reaching and centrally concerned with the changing meaning of sport and sporting identity in the twenty first century This book was previously published as a Special Issue of Sport in Society SAIS Review ,2003 The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia Owens, 2008 Now in its fourth edition this internationally successful text has been fully revised and updated in light of recent developments in world politics with new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics A comprehensive introduction to international relations it is ideally suited to students coming to the subject for the first time It provides a coherent accessible and lively account of the globalization of world politics FEATURES Contains work from an impressive line up of international contributors who are experts in their fields the chapters have been carefully edited in order to ensure an integrated and coherent style throughout the book Covers history theory structures and processes and international issues Offers a visually stunning 4 color interior Enhanced by a comprehensive Companion Website www.oup.com/uk/orc/bin/9780199297771 that includes a test bank PowerPoint slides case studies multiple choice questions links to journal articles a flashcard glossary and new to this edition video clips video pod casts of contributors and a news feed NEW TO THIS EDITION Three new chapters on the changing nature of war human security and international ethics Each chapter includes a 400 word case study More examples from the developing world Modern Sociological Theory George Ritzer, 2007-06-27 Gives you a comprehensive overview of the major contemporary schools of sociological thought This work integrates key theories with biographical sketches of theorists and theories are placed in their historical and intellectual context It helps students to better understand the original works and appreciate the diversity of contemporary theory Deciphering the City William A. Schwab, 2020-10-07 Well written and extremely topical Deciphering the City efficiently deals with the large and small issues facing cities today A focus on globalization s impact on the role of cities an explicit mission to drive home the applied nature of urban studies to students This innovative text offers an exciting introduction to the history issues problems potential solutions and challenges facing cities in the developed and the developing world for the twenty first century Globalization has changed the roles of cities in the global economy and this text begins with an introduction to the phenomenon of globalization and how the changes it has brought about have affected the social political and economic institutions of societies The second section of the text concentrates on the psychology of the city and the community building process while the book s third section illustrates the structure of cities and their historical and emerging patterns Deciphering the City makes studying the city a relevant and interesting subject necessary in understanding the functioning of today s world Unmodern Architecture Hans Ibelings, 2004 In the Netherlands for decades a bastion of modernism neomodernism and supermodernism a contemporary traditionalism has been causing a stir since the 1990s Traditionalists draw from the past and prefer means that have already proved their worth Contemporary traditionalism stripped of all populist and moralistic arguments for and against is

Diasporic Ruptures Alireza Asgharzadeh, Erica Lawson, Keyleen U. Oka, Amar Wahab, 2007 Diasporic Ruptures Globality Migrancy and Expressions of Identity lies at the intersections of various processes emerging from globalization border crossings transnationalism identity formations Carefully selected and placed in two volumes the essays here represent works of both well seasoned scholars as well as emerging writers academics and intellectuals The volumes critically examine various manifestations of the trend now commonly known as globalization manifestations that many diasporic communities immigrants and people from all walks of life experience They also illuminate recent political social economic and technological developments that are taking place in a rapidly changing world Volume One offers sophisticated insights into the nature of contemporary formations of diasporic life internationalism and hybrid identities The volume asks bold questions around what it means to live in constantly shifting boundaries of nationality identity and citizenship The type of methodological discursive and experiential awareness promoted by this work helps us understand how millions of people face the challenge of living in a globalizing world it also fosters a consciousness of how globalization itself functions differently in different environments Volume Two see Volume 7 in Transgressions Cultural Studies and Education addresses additional and more nuanced questions around culture race sexuality migration displacement and resistance It also explores certain epistemological and methodological fallacies regarding conventional articulations of nation state nationalism and the local global nexus The volume seeks to answer questions such as What are the meanings and connotations of displacement in a rapidly globalizing world What are some dilemmas and challenges around notions of cultural hybridity linguistic diversity and a sense of belonging What is the meaning of home in diaspora and the meaning of diaspora at home Together the volumes raise many topics that will be of immense interest to scholars across disciplines and general readers While celebrating the increasing acknowledgment of difference and diversity in recent times this work reminds us of the ongoing ramifications of dominant structures of inequality relations of power and issues of inclusion and exclusion This work offers different ways of thinking writing and talking about globalization and the processes that emerge from it Psychology and Education, 2002 Yishu, 2007 Current Sociology, 1952 Includes bibliographies The Clash of Intolerances Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2007 Living Blue in the Red States David Starkey, 2007-09 In the wake of George W Bush's reelection a provocative study looks at the goals values and attitudes of politically progressive writers living in so called conservative red states featuring contributions by Jonis Agee Stephen Corey Robin Hemley Lee Martin David Morrell and David Romtvedt who offer an insightful look at American politics and issues Original International Security Bilal Karabulut, 2024-04-01

International Security Threats Theories and Transformation maps out security studies the subdiscipline of discipline of International Relations IR which has strong topics and dynamic structure but this and almost everything in the globalization process is changing or transforming rapidly This situation also affects the field of IR and security studies New concepts are entering literature traditional thought patterns are not enough to understand and make sense of the IR discipline In addition to traditional security issues such as terrorism and war new security areas emerging with the process of globalization are also comprehensively analyzed in this book These include energy security cyber security environmental security health security economic security food security demographic security and irregular migration

Why We Hate Politics Colin Hay, 2013-04-23 Politics was once a term with an array of broadly positive connotations associated with public scrutiny deliberation and accountability Yet today it is an increasingly dirty word typically synonymous with duplicity corruption inefficiency and undue interference in matters both public and private How has this come to pass Why do we hate politics and politicians so much How pervasive is the contemporary condition of political disaffection And what is politics anyway In this lively and original work Colin Hay provides a series of innovative and provocative answers to these questions He begins by tracing the origins and development of the current climate of political disenchantment across a broad range of established democracies Far from revealing a rising tide of apathy however he shows that a significant proportion of those who have withdrawn from formal politics are engaged in other modes of political activity He goes on to develop and defend a broad and inclusive conception of politics and the political that is far less formal less state centric and less narrowly governmental than in most conventional accounts By demonstrating how our expectations of politics and the political realities we witness are shaped decisively by the assumptions about human nature that we project onto political actors Hay provides a powerful and highly distinctive account of contemporary political disenchantment Why We Hate Politics will be essential reading for all those troubled by the contemporary political condition of the established democracies

The Globalization Reader Frank J. Lechner, John Boli, 2008 The third edition of The Globalization Reader makes sense of globalization by conveying its complexity importance and contentiousness from diverse vantage points With its broad coverage of political economic cultural and individual dimensions this volume provides students with a deeper understanding of the globalization process It offers a provocative assessment of economic globalization examines the role of media and religion in cultural globalization and explores the link between environmentalism and the globalization of social problems The inclusion of new material on issues such as economic integration inequality and Islam helps to make it a comprehensive introduction to globalization studies Scholars activists and organizations look with a critical eye at the many layers and dimensions of globalization By reviewing the current debates and ongoing research on the topic readers can better understand and judge the varied consequences of what is likely to be a dominant concern throughout the twenty first century
