Autopia Peter Wollen, Joe Kerr, 2002 The reach of the car today is almost universal and its effect on landscapes cityscapes cultures indeed on the very fabric of the modern world is profound Cars have brought benefits to individuals in terms of mobility and expanded horizons but the cost has been very high in terms of damage to the environment and the consumption of precious resources. Despite the growing belief that a Faustian price is now being paid for the freedom cars have bestowed on us, we are none the less manufacturing them in ever greater numbers. Autopia is the first book to explore the culture of the motor car in the widest possible sense. Featuring newly commissioned essays by writers, critics, historians, artists and film makers, as well as reprinting key texts, it examines the effect of the car throughout the world, including the USA, Western and Eastern Europe, Japan, China, Cuba, India and South Africa. In this book, the car is treated neither as a technological fetish object nor as an instrument of danger. Instead, it is examined as a hugely important determinant of 20th century culture, neither wholly good nor an unmitigated disaster, and certainly endlessly fascinating. Contributors include Michael Bracewell, Ziauddin Sardar, Al Rees, Martin Pawley, Donald Richie and Peter Hamilton. Key texts by Marshall Berman, Jane Jacobs, Roland Barthes, Marc Auge and others. Fluxus und / als Literatur Anne-Rose Meyer-Eisenhut, Burkhard Meyer-Sieckendiek, 2024-05-17. Kunst als Leben: Musik, Performances, Literatur. La presente obra constituye el primer esfuerzo riguroso y omniabarcador por desarrollar un relato hist rico de la performance desde las experiencias que salpicaron las vanguardias hasta las formulaciones m s contempor neas. En primer lugar se ofrece un amplio an lisis sobre la presencia que las estrategias performativas tuvieron en las vanguardias hist ricas. Identifica despu s aquellas rupturas que se produjeron en el seno de la modernidad tras la Segunda Guerra Mundial y que condujeron a la eclosi n de movimientos tan decisivos como el happening y el Fluxus. Aborda a continuaci n el surgimiento y desarrollo de la performance posmoderna, fruto del descentramiento del sujeto y finalmente analiza la reformulaci n de los lenguajes performativos en el actual contexto de la globalizaci n. En estas p ginas el autor analiza con maestr a el zigzagueante itinerario trazado por las llamadas artes vivas tambi n desde un punto de vista poscolonial, traza un amplio arco que desborda las estrechas concepciones privativas de Occidente que han ahormado con frecuencia las narrativas de la performance y se adentra en la intensa y prolija praxis art stica desarrollada en territorios tradicionalmente considerados como perif ricos: Latinoam rica, China, India, Corea del Sur o Sud frica. Adem s, habida cuenta de que la performance constituye por definici n un lenguaje fronterizo expuesto continuamente a procesos de contaminaci n e hibridaci

Loeb,2022-02-24 In The City as Subject Carolyn S Loeb examines distinctive bodies of public art in Berlin legal and illegal murals painted in West Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s post reunification public sculptures and images and sites from the street art scene Her careful analyses show how these developed new architectural and spatial vocabularies that drew on the city s infrastructure and daily urban experience These works challenged mainstream urban development practices and engaged with citizen activism and with a wider civic discourse about what a city can be Loeb extends this urban focus to her examination of the extensive outdoor installation of the Berlin Wall Memorial and its mandate to represent the history of the city s division She studies its surrounding neighborhoods to show that while the Memorial adopts many of the urban oriented vocabularies established by the earlier works of public art she examines it truncates the story of urban division which stretches beyond the Wall s existence Loeb suggests that by embracing more multi vocal perspectives the Memorial could encourage the kind of participatory and heterogeneous construction of the city championed by the earlier works of public art Selections from the Permanent Collection Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.),1984
