The Devil and Daniel Silverman Theodore Roszak,2003 Daniel Silverman a gay Jewish novelist is invited to give a speech on humanism at a church college in Minnesota where he gets snowed in with a hostile audience of Christian fundamentalists

Evangelicals and the Arts in Fiction John Weaver,2013-04-19 This book is an exploration of how the relationship of evangelicals to the arts has been portrayed in fiction for the last century The author argues that evangelicals are consistently seen as enemies of the arts by non evangelical writers The artist typically represented by a literal artist occasionally by a scientist or reluctant messiah typically has to fight for liberation from such cliched character types as the failed evangelical artist the rube or the hypocritical pastor Rather than resist the cliché of anti art evangelicalism the book contends that evangelicals should embrace it this stereotype is only hurtful so long as one assumes that the arts represent a positive force in human society This work built off the scholarship of John Carey does not make that assumption Surveying the current pro artistic views of most evangelicals the author advances the argument that evangelicals need to return to their anti art roots By doing so they would align themselves with the most radical artistic elements of modernism rather than with the classicists that the movement currently seems to prefer and provide space for themselves to critique how secular artistic stereotypes of evangelicals have economically and artistically marginalized the evangelicals community

Epiphanies Ann Jauregui,2003 In a quiet moment in therapy a breakthrough comes the miracle of the new Epiphany is defined by Webster s as a sudden insight into the reality or essential meaning of something But my favorite part of the definition says psychotherapist Ann Jauregui tells us that the revelation is usually brought on by some simple homely or commonplace experience Something big is occasioned by something little something easily missed And it unfolds from there sometimes as a flash sometimes in exquisite slow motion out of conventional time and space and language Look at this you whisper as you see something about the universe you ve never seen before And look at this you whisper too seeing yourself seeing it The universe is bigger than it was a minute ago and so are you In this intimate lyrical integration of psychology and spirituality Dr Jauregui shares the stories of nine clients casting light on moments that just came bringing surprise comfort and joy Shyly we venture out with these stories she writes into a world still in the thrall of a reluctant science and its cousin a reluctant psychotherapy We are the beneficiaries invited into a sparkling conversation that explores these life changing surprises and our own Novel & Short Story Writer's Market 2005 ,2004 2003 Novel and Short Story Writer's Market Anne Bowling, Vanessa Lyman, 2002 Extensive market listings provide accurate up to date information on commercial and literary publishers magazines and more
