Cowboys, Creatures, and Classics Chris Enss, Howard Kazanjian, 2018-09-01 Take one well oiled effective killing machine add a familiar hero on the ground in the air and on horseback stir in a ghastly end that's surely impossible to escape add action add passion made on a shoestring budget at breakneck speed and you've got the recipe for Republic Pictures Who after all cannot forget The Atomic Kid starring Mickey Rooney or The Untamed Heiress with an un-Oscar worthy performance by ingénue Judy Canova Exploding onto the movie scene in 1935 Republic Pictures brought the pop culture of the 30s and 40s to neighborhood movie houses Week after week kids sank into their matinee seats to soak up the Golden Age of the Republic series to ride off into the classic American West And they gave us visions of the future Visions that inspire film makers today Republic was a studio that dollar for dollar packed more movie onto the screen than the majors could believe From sunrise on into the night over grueling six day weeks no matter how much mayhem movie makers were called upon to produce at Republic Pictures it was all in a day's work Republic Pictures was the little studio in the San Fernando Valley where movies were made family style A core of technicians directors and actors worked hard at their craft as Republic released a staggering total of more than a thousand films through the late 1950s Republic Pictures was home to John Wayne for thirty three films Always inventing Republic brought a song to the West It featured the West's first singing cowboy Republic brought action adventure and escape to neighborhood movies houses across America And they brought it with style Scene from westerns such as The Three Mesquiteers and the Lawless Range gave screaming kids at the bijou a white knuckle display of expert film making Republic Pictures became a studio where major directors could bring their personal vision to the screen Sometimes these were projects no other studio would touch such as The Quiet Man which brought director John Ford an Oscar and Macbeth Killer Bs Cowboys Creatures and Classics The Story of Republic Pictures is for anyone who likes B movies magic It is the honest account of an extraordinary production house one whose ability to turn out films quickly boded well for its transition into television production Not only were its sets used for such shows as Leave it
