Skilful Judo:

Skilful Judo Brian Caffary, Desmond Marwood, 1992 Judo Reay, Tony Reay, 1987 Judo Neil Morris, 2001 Each title in this series is an introduction to a popular martial art aimed at first time practitioners The books focus on key skills with step by step instructions historical cultural and general interest information This text focuses on judo The Athletic Skills Model René Wormhoudt, Geert J.P. Savelsbergh, Jan Willem Teunissen, Keith Davids, 2017-10-12 The Athletic Skills Model offers an alternative to dominant talent development theories in the form of holistic broad based movement education focusing on health and wellbeing It places the emphasis on physical intelligence including attributes such as agility flexibility and stability through adaptable and varied training programmes creating a skilled athlete before introducing sport specialization The book sets out the scientific underpinnings of the ASM before going on to offer practical guidance on the content of the programme how to adapt and vary the programme and how to apply the approach to different age groups and sports The ASM s application in the youth development programme at AFC Ajax is explored in depth before a future of talent development with an emphasis on athletic rather than sport specific expertise is imagined The Athletic Skills Model introduces an important and timely challenge to conventional wisdom in talent development and is a fascinating read for any upper level student or researcher interested in youth development skill acquisition motor learning or sports coaching and any coaches wanting to refresh their approach to talent development Judo Memoirs of Jigoro Kano Brian N. Watson, 2008-10-03 In 1882 Kano opened his Kodokan dojo in Tokyo where he taught jujutsu to his first class of nine students His choice of the name Kodokan symbolizes precocity in one so young and is highly significant for it means the institute where one is guided along the road to follow in life that is to say a road that one travels as a means of self cultivation which Kano regarded as the optimum way to live ones life This cultivation however can only be attained following long years of training made with vigorous exertion in an effort to reach the ultimate goal self perfection At the age of twenty four Kano abruptly gave up the teaching of this ancient and altogether brutal activity and never taught jujutsu again In his attempt to create for the modern age a non violent spiritually inspiring antagonistic art he carried out research on several styles of jujutsu Primarily in the interests of both safety and practicality he altered and added his own devices to the techniques that he was later to incorporate into his newly conceived system of skills which he named Kodokan judo In lectures Kano often stated the following The ultimate object of studying judo is to train and cultivate body and mind through practice in attack and defense and by thus mastering the essentials of the art to attain perfection of oneself and bring benefits to the world He had sought to create in judo therefore something positive out of something largely negative Winning Judo Steve Scott, 2024-06-04 Winning Judo offers realistic and practical instruction for success in competitive judo Written for beginner and experienced athletes author Steve Scott shares the skills you need to be successful at all levels of competitive judo He will teach you how to train your body enhance your competition skill set and establish a winning mental game You will learn
