

THE INTEGRATIVE LEARNING PROCESS

1

INTEGRATIVE INQUIRY

To ask meaningful questions connecting personal experiences to academic study and co-curricular life; to synthesize multiple bodies of knowledge to address real-world problems and issues.

2

APPLICATION + TRANSFER

To adapt and apply skills, theories, and methods gained in one or more domains to new situations.

3

REFLECTION

To reflect upon changes in learning and outlook over time; to make personal, professional, and civic plans based on that self-reflection.

Teaching And Learning An Integrated Approach To Christian Education:

Teaching and Learning Ronald P. Chadwick, 1982-01-01 The Whole Truth Mark Eckel, 2003 The audience for this book is twofold 1 teacher programs in colleges that are training the next generation of Christian school teachers and 2 instructors already practicing their vocation in the Christian academy The present volume seeks to wed the philosophy of biblical integration with the practice of biblical integration Biblical integration is hard work Therefore many concrete examples will be used to facilitate understanding of the ideas The Christian Educator's Handbook on Teaching , 1988

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Teaching for Spiritual Formation Kyle R.

Hughes, 2022-01-06 In Teaching for Spiritual Formation church historian and experienced Christian educator Kyle R Hughes advances a fresh vision of Christian teaching and learning by drawing upon the riches of the Christian tradition synthesizing the wisdom of the early church fathers with contemporary efforts to cultivate a distinctively Christian approach to education Of interest to a wide range of Christian educators this book examines how the writings of five significant church fathers can illuminate our understanding of the vocation of teachers the nature of students the purpose of curriculum decisions about pedagogy and how spiritual formation works Besides reimagining these aspects of Christian education Hughes also offers habits and practices that can help bring this vision of Christian teaching and learning to life challenging Christian educators to sharpen their approach to the integration of faith and learning in practical and accessible ways Faith-Integrated Being.

Knowing, and Doing Sarinah Lo, 2020-08-31 In this holistic study of the integration of faith and learning Dr Sarinah Lo challenges the Western tendency to privilege knowing over being and doing In the context of Indonesian higher education Dr Lo addresses the cognitive affective spiritual relational and vocational aspects of human nature She demonstrates that effective integration of faith and learning must reach beyond the academic disciplines to address the formation of a Christian perspective in all areas of life thought and practice Utilizing in depth interviews and qualitative analysis Dr Lo s field research explores the specific challenges facing Christian faculty in Indonesia where the rise of radical Islam and the pressure to conform to state ideology raise unique questions about the nature of faith learning integration The first study of its kind this is an excellent resource for educators wanting to think more broadly about what it means to follow Christ in the classroom pushing beyond Western models of integration to embrace the more holistic approach of faith integrated being knowing and doing
