Reformation of Prayerbooks Chaoluan Kao, 2017-11-13 In her study Chaoluan Kao offers a comprehensive investigation of popular piety at the time of the European Reformations through the study of sixteenth and seventeenth century Protestant prayerbooks It pursues a historical contextual approach to spirituality by integrating social and religious history in order to yield a deeper understanding of both the history of Christian piety and of church history in general The study explores seven prayerbooks by German authors and seventeen English prayerbooks from the Reformation and post Reformation as well as from Lutheran Anglican and Puritan traditions examining them as spiritual texts with social and theological significance that helped disseminate popular understandings of Protestant piety Early Protestant piety required intellectual engagement emphasized a faithful and heartfelt attitude in approaching God and urged regular exercise in prayer and reading Early Protestant prayerbooks modeled for their readers a Protestant piety that was a fervent spiritual practice solidly grounded in the social context and connections of its practitioners Through those books Reformation could be understood as redefining the meanings of people s spiritual lives and re-discovering of a pious life In a broader sense they functioned as a channel of historical and spiritual transition which not only tells us the transformation and transmission of Reformation historically but also signifies the development of Christian spirituality The social historical study of the prayerbooks furthers our understanding of continuity change and inter-confessional influence in the Christian piety of early modern Europe

From Here to Maturity Thomas E. Bergler, 2014-11-27 Expert guidance on how to grow up in Christ This book is a follow up to Thomas Bergler s acclaimed work The Juvenilization of American Christianity which documents how church youth ministries over the past several decades have contributed to a process of adolescent spiritual traits becoming accepted and even celebrated by Christians of all ages This juvenilization in the church is a real problem that must be addressed says Bergler and in his new book he addresses it head on Bergler s From Here to Maturity is an accessible guide for helping both individuals and whole faith communities to grow spiritually Bergler claims that spiritual maturity defined as basic competence in the Christian life is both desirable and attainable and he effectively presents a biblical theology of spiritual maturity identifying its traits from pertinent New Testament passages Adapting Dallas Willard s model of spiritual formation and applying it to congregational life Bergler offers a wealth of practical research based guidance as to how Christian leaders can effectively foster spiritual maturity in their congregations He also identifies six key faith sustaining factors and provides a system for evaluating a church's state of spiritual maturity and steps for improving it Ecumenically friendly From Here to Maturity will be useful to individuals and leaders from many different churches and theological traditions

A Vision for Teaching George Janvier, 2018-06-07 This book is about a vision for quality education preparing adults to teach on Bible College seminary and graduate levels The discipline of education has many ways of approaching the task of teaching and equipping students for a victorious life and ministry Students in Bible Colleges and seminaries are on the way to full time ministry and need to be equipped for the task The equipping includes outstanding teaching of information and knowledge as foundation for other learning tasks The equipping includes a godly example of the spiritual life in prayer and love towards God It includes the development of skills through good teaching prayer experiential learning and the development of competencies for ministry The best teachers are those who have a vision for the subject matter at hand the students and God These three aspects of teaching will bring great satisfaction and fulfilment to the teacher and produce a crop of graduates who will go out and change the world My desire is that one day your students will say the same thing about you that the people who listened to Jesus said When Jesus had finished saying these things the crowds were amazed at his teaching because he taught as one who had authority and not as their teachers of the law Matthew 7:28-29

Christian Ethics Russell A. Morris, 2015-08-14 Within the Christian community at large there is often little correlation between scriptural guidelines for Christian living and the lifestyle practices and behavior of believers Christian social scientist George Barna has done extensive research in this area that reveals alarming data For example nearly nine of ten adults state that religious faith is very important in their lives However only one in five adults claims that the Bible is the dominant influence in their decisions regarding lifestyle practices Further research suggests that there is often little difference between the lifestyle practices of Christians and non Christians This nominal difference in lifestyle practices and behavior between Christians and non Christians as well as the minimal correlation between Scripture and practice among many Christians produced an interest in this area of practical theology Serving as a Christian pastor over the past two decades the reality of Barna's research has been observed personally The biblical parallel of the prevailing apathy within today's churches is seen in Judges 21:25 NASB In those days there was no king in Israel everyone did what was right in his own eyes That is in those days there was no accepted standard of truth Likewise only one in four American adults believes in the existence of absolute truth As a result the relationship between doctrine and practice belief and behavior is often minimal with many Christians doing only what is right in their own eyes rather than allowing God's Word to influence their mode of living A distinct relationship between belief and behavior is seen in I Timothy 4:16 In this passage Paul clearly identifies a correlation between what one believes doctrine and the lifestyle behavior one lives when he writes Watch your life and doctrine closely Persevere in them because if you do you will save both yourself and your hearers From this verse it is clear that there are two areas in the life of the Christian that need to be scrutinized and pursued namely belief and behavior The fundamental thesis of this book is that a deeper understanding of Christian ethics will inform and facilitate the Christian life ... How to Teach Religion George Herbert Betts,1919 Philosophical & Sociological Perspectives of Education - I Dulmoni Nath,Biswajyoti Sarmah,2025-02-12 Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A. develop a way of knowing God appropriate to His greatness and our littleness
