Moore, 2009 Applying the latest research findings and practical classroom practices this book provides thorough coverage of the strategies and skills needed for effective teaching Teaching Hellmut Rochus Lang, Arthur McBeath, Jo Hébert, 1994 Pedagogies for Student-Centered Learning Cari Crumly, 2014-11-01 What comes to mind when you hear student centered learning Do you immediately see a classroom without a teacher Do you see students teaching other students How do you know which pedagogies to use when designing the best learning environment The question of determining what pedagogies to use within the classroom on ground or virtual can often plague teachers given today's student. This book will help you to identify the difference between teacher-centered and student-centered learning and the various pedagogies commonly associated with each. This book will draw upon the research and experience of three different educators and their pedagogical variations and uses within the classroom and online. Crumly's synopsis of student-centered learning and suggested action is followed by a collaborative dialogue with Pamela Dietz and Sarah d'Angelo. Dietz and d'Angelo provide practical commentary regarding the successful implementation of Crumly's proposed approaches. As a group, Crumly, Dietz, and d'Angelo create a text that extends pedagogical innovation in inspiring but practical ways.

Teachers as Architects of Learning Gavin Grift, Clare Major, 2020-06-05. Craft a personal blueprint for teaching that ensures student learning stands as the foundation of your classroom. Drawing on research from the field, reflections from teachers, and the authors' professional experience, Teachers as Architects of Learning guides educators in building their wisdom around the art of teaching. Find new and better ways to plan, implement, discuss, question, model, and more. Use this resource to help students apply their existing knowledge most purposefully to new learning opportunities. Gain a deeper understanding of the learning process through an extensive overview of key learning theories and their practical applications. Discover how a focus on learning rather than teaching benefits students. Explore twelve learning constructs and learn ways of incorporating them into a learning-centered classroom. Reflect on teaching strategies and develop more mindful approaches to class modeling both in individual and collaborative group contexts. Examine the importance of students' investment in their own learning process and create an environment in which students find more motivation, agency, and mindfulness in their learning.
