Teaching Through Text Michael C. McKenna, Richard David Robinson, 1993 Teaching Through Text is designed to help middle and high school content teachers apply reading related techniques for fostering comprehension of materials in their area This book provides a core set of instructional techniques that are easy for teachers to implement and that do not encroach on the time spent learning content

Teaching Reading in the Content Areas Vicki Urquhart, Dana Frazee, 2012-07-03 History teachers aren't expected to teach science math teachers aren't expected to teach social studies so why are all teachers responsible for teaching reading The answer is simple An emphasis on reading and literacy skills in the content areas has an exponential effect on learning in every discipline This completely revised third edition of the best selling Teaching Reading in the Content Areas seeks to help educators understand how to teach reading in their respective disciplines choose the best reading strategies from the vast array available and positively impact student learning Throughout it draws from new research on the impact of new technologies the population boom of English language learners and the influence of the Common Core State Standards Given the complexities of the reading process teachers deserve and this book provides clear research based answers to overarching questions about teaching reading in the content areas What specific skills do students need to read effectively in each content area Which reading strategies are most appropriate to help students become more effective readers and independent learners What type of learning environment promotes effective reading and learning By focusing on the differences in how content area experts read and reason teachers can be better prepared to help their students understand that the ways they read in biology are different from the ways they read in English history or mathematics To read successfully in different content areas students must develop discipline specific skills and strategies along with knowledge of that discipline With that in mind this book also includes 40 strategies designed to help students in every grade level and across the content areas develop their vocabularies comprehend informational and narrative texts and engage in meaningful discussions of what they read Reading Strategies for Elementary Students With Learning Difficulties William N. Bender, Martha J. Larkin, 2009-01-12 Packed with research based strategies for use with RTI this resource covers brain compatible reading instruction for students with learning disabilities or reading difficulties Reading, Writing, and Inquiry in the Science Classroom, Grades 6-12 Kathleen Chamberlain, Christine Corby Crane, 2008-09-26 The strategies align with what our preservice and veteran teachers need to teach in today s classrooms From newspapers magazines and research reports to adolescent trade books the authors offer numerous strategies for supplementing science classes with various reading materials Amy M Rogers Instructor of Education Lycoming College Williamsport PA Combine literacy and inquiry based instruction to advance student achievement in science Integrating reading and writing with inquiry in the science classroom can present a challenge for teachers who may not have a background in reading instruction and who may be concerned about how to strengthen students literacy skills while effectively teaching science content In this timely resource Kathleen Chamberlain and Christine Corby Crane demonstrate how nurturing strong communication skills can have a significant impact on student performance and provide research based strategies for successfully integrating literacy skills with science instruction Packed with information about reading and writing pedagogy science standards adolescent and young adult literature and lesson design this book Addresses the relationship between reading and science education including the use of textbooks and other materials Offers methods for teaching writing in the science classroom Highlights the role of technology in enhancing students science knowledge Includes sample lesson plans graphic organizers and templates suitable for any secondary science classroom with modifications for students with special needs The ultimate blend of theory and practice Reading Writing and Inquiry in the Science Classroom Grades 6 12 helps educators foster the skills to communicate science ideas and experiences and give students an academic advantage Teaching Through Text Michael C. McKenna, Richard David Robinson, 2005 Rave Reviews for the Fourth Edition of Teaching Through Text The major strengths of this text are its elegant conceptual frame first the global lesson planning frameworks and then the before during after reading strategies and its conscious use of connections to technology Sharon Walpole University of Delaware Due to the extra care the authors took to make Teaching Through Text a real life example of a reader friendly textbook the text itself becomes a more accessible and therefore more rewarding text from which to learn about content area literacy instruction Laura Jones Nazareth College of Rochester It is an easy text to read and use Summaries are brief and provide a nice closure to the chapters Content information is easily located and dissected for class discussion and presentation Isaac Willis Larison Xavier University About the Fourth Edition Bringing all the research up to date this Fourth Edition of Teaching Through Text provides a broad range of techniques to enhance students literacy development and learning across the curriculum Authored by two of the most respected literacy researchers this text focuses on describing illustrating and applying both teacher directed and student centered strategies for content area literacy in middle and secondary grades What s New on the Fourth Edition Additional instructional techniques are presented aligned with the Report of the National Reading Panel The treatment of diversity is more prominent and has been expanded to include the topic of culturally responsive teaching A detailed section on content area read alouds has been added New research based ideas for motivating students to read are presented The topic of reciprocal teaching has been given major status Other Allyn Bacon Titles by Michael McKenna and Richard Robinson Issues and Trends in Literacy Education 3 e c 2004 ISBN 0205361102 Readings in Reading Instruction Its History Theory and Development 1 e c 2005 ISBN 0205410588 by Richard Robinson Best Practices in Writing Instruction, Second Edition Steve Graham, Charles A.
