

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day He arose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic [universal] church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

The Apostles' Creed William Barclay, 1998-11-01 If there is one statement of the Christian Church it is contained in the Apostles Creed writes William Barclay Professor Barclay reminds us however that the Creed should be seen not so much as a test and yardstick of orthodoxy but rather as a symbolic pictorial and poetic representation of a truth a truth that Christian should constantly rethink and restate for themselves Barclay s insights are particularly valuable at a time when many traditional beliefs are being questioned both by theologians and lay people He manages to bridge the gap between the academic and lay worlds while addressing the most profound issues of the Christian faith The William Barclay Library is a collection of books addressing the great issues of the Christian faith As one of the world s most widely read interpreters of the Bible and its meaning William Barclay devoted his life to helping people become more faithful disciples of Jesus Christ
