Soldiers Andrew Iarocci,2008-09-26 The Great War was a pivotal experience for twentieth century Canada Shoestring Soldiers is the first scholarly study since 1938 to focus exclusively on Canada s initial overseas experience from late 1914 to the end of 1915 In this exciting new work Andrew Iarocci challenges the dominant view that the 1st Canadian Division was poorly prepared for war in 1914 and less than effective during battles in 1915 He examines the first generations of men to serve overseas with the division their training leadership morale and combat operations from Salisbury Plain to the Ypres

Salient from the La Bass e Canal to Ploegsteert Wood Iarocci contends that setbacks and high losses in battle were not so much the products of poor training and weak leadership as they were of inadequate material resources on the Western Front Shoestring Soldiers incorporates a wealth of research material from official documents soldiers letters and diaries and the battlefields themselves surveyed extensively by the author It marks an important contribution to the growing body of literature on Canada in the First World War Technology's War Record Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Alumni Association. War records committee, 1920 This book was written to document the part played by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology its staff its former students and its undergraduates Tales of skill self sacrifice and courage displayed by Tech men are preserved as an inspiration to their comrades and descendants Attention is directed to the fact that such an institution as Technology is not only a valuable auxillary in developing commerce and industry in time of peace but that in time of national emergency it becomes an indispensable part of the Nation s military organization
