The New St. Patrick's Cathedral. The Archbishop's Sermon [on Ps. Cxxvi. 1, 2] at the Laying of the Corner Stone John HUGHES (R.C. Archbishop of New York.),1864      The Bishop's Palace Maureen C. Miller,2018-09-05 This lavishly illustrated book looks at the art and architecture of episcopal palaces as expressions of power and ideology Tracing the history of the bishop's residence in the urban centers of northern Italy over the Middle Ages Maureen C Miller asks why this once rudimentary and highly fortified structure called a domus became a complex and elegant palace palatium by the late twelfth century Miller argues that the change reflects both the emergence of a distinct clerical culture and the attempts of bishops to maintain authority in public life She relates both to the Gregorian reform movement which set new standards for clerical deportment and at the same time undercut episcopal claims to secular power As bishops lost temporal authority in their cities to emerging communal governments they compensated architecturally and competed with the communes for visual and spatial dominance in the urban center This rivalry left indelible marks on the layout and character of Italian cities Moreover Miller contends this struggle for power had highly significant but mixed results for western Christianity On the one hand as bishops lost direct governing authority in their cities they devised ways to retain status influence and power through cultural practices This response to loss was highly creative On the other hand their loss of secular control led bishops to emphasize their spiritual powers and to use them to obtain temporal ends The coercive use of spiritual authority contributed to the emergence of a persecuting society in the central Middle Ages      Constitutions and canons ecclesiasticall, treated upon by the archbishops, and bishops, and the rest of the cleargie of Ireland Ireland Church of canons,1839      Lives of the Archbishops of Canterbury: Anglo-Norman period Walter Farquhar Hook,1875      Lives of the Archbishops of Canterbury: (New series, v. 1-6).
