Infinite Gabriella Stanchina, 2025-01-27 Mou Zongsan is arguably the most important Chinese philosopher of the twentieth century This work delves into the philosopher's exploration of self and subjectivity setting Mou Zongsan's theories against Western paradigms Mou contrasts Western horizontal model based on the separation of subject and object and aimed at cognitive enhancement with the vertical view dominant in the Confucian and Daoist tradition The vertical model has at its core a practical performative interpretation of the subject based on the moral self cultivation This spiritual cultivation enables the finite human being to become infinite embodying the original unlimited moral mind that constitutes the Self and the universe In addressing fundamental questions of self consciousness and self identity the book contextualizes Mou's philosophy within contemporary discussions in neuroscience and cognitive science By placing Mou's ideas in dialogue with Western thought examining thinkers like Husserl Kant Hegel and Levinas as well as with Daoist and Confucian vision of mind this work opens a pathway to understanding selfhood beyond purely epistemological boundaries This book will be of interest to readers and scholars interested in the contemporary debate about mind and the Self as well as those intrigued by the new horizons opened by a cross cultural Western Chinese approach to subjectivity Hegel and the Art of Negation Andrew W. Hass, 2013-11-12 Why is the philosopher Hegel returning as a potent force in contemporary thinking Why after a long period when Hegel and his dialectics of history have seemed less compelling than they were for previous generations of philosophers is study of Hegel again becoming important Fashionably contemporary theorists like Francis Fukuyama and Slavoj Zizek as well as radical theologians like Thomas Altizer have all recently been influenced by Hegel the philosopher whose philosophy seems somehow perennial or to borrow an idea from Nietzsche eternally returning Exploring this revival via the notion of negation in Hegelian thought and relating such negativity to sophisticated ideas about art and artistic creation Andrew Hass argues that the notion of Hegelian negation moves us into an expansive territory where art religion and philosophy may all be radically reconceived and broken open into new forms of philosophical expression The implications of such a revived Hegelian philosophy are the author argues vast and current Hegel thereby becomes the philosopher par excellence who can address vital issues in politics economics war and violence leading to a new form of globalised ethics

Hass makes a bold and original contribution to religion philosophy and the history of ideas      The Art of Knitting
