Analysing the juxtaposition of two trends in universities corporatisation and environmental sustainability this book explores how they are more contradictory than compatible Hans A Baer argues that this contradiction is unavoidable because of the capitalist parameters in which they operate including a commitment to on going economic growth which contributes to social inequality environmental degradation and greenhouse gas emissions Drawing on archival sources and Baer s experiences in university sustainability forums the book exposes how what universities claim to do in relation to environmental sustainability compares with their research educational operational and institutional activities Presenting a critique of and a radical alternative to the status quo this book is suitable for academics and students of anthropology environmental studies and higher education
