Sally Bodkin-Allen

The Making Of Music:

Making Music George Martin, 1983 Making Music in Music City John Markert, 2023-08-18 At least since the rise of the Nashville sound in the 1950s Tennessee's capital city has attracted numerous books and articles offering insight into the celebrity machine known as Music City But behind the artist in the limelight are a host of support personnel and contributors who shape the artist's music Of these myriad occupations within the music industry only two have received significant attention executives at the major labels and elite songwriters who have forged a path to the top of the charts In Making Music in Music City sociologist John Markert compiles and assesses more than one hundred interviews with industry professionals whose roles have been less often examined producers publishers songwriters management studio musicians and more The book naturally pivots around the country music industry but also discusses Nashville's role in other forms of modern music such as rock Christian and rap Markert's in-depth interviews with key music professionals provide a fresh perspective on the roles of critical players in Nashville's music industry This book sheds light not only on the complexities of the industry and the occupational changes taking place but on the critical role of those who work behind the scenes to shape the music that ultimately reaches the public Through firsthand accounts Making Music in Music City analyzes just what it takes to create produce and disseminate the Nashville sound

Making Music in Selznick's Hollywood Nathan Platte, 2018 This book tells the fascinating story of the evolution of David O Selznick's style through the many artists whose work defined Hollywood sound

Making Music, Making Society Josep Martí, Sara Revilla, 2018-01-23 A society is the result of interacting individuals and individuals are also the result of this interaction This interaction happens through music among other factors As such music constitutes a powerful resource for symbolic interaction which constitutes the medium and substance of a culture The importance of music in a society is clearly brought to light in the role that it plays in the three basic parameters of the social logics identity social order and the need for exchange If music is so important to us it is because apart from its assigned aesthetic values it fits closely with the dynamics of each of these three different parameters These parameters which are consubstantial to the social nature of the human being constitute the core of the book as they manifest in musical practices This publication addresses important issues such as the role of music in shaping identities how music and social order are intertwined and why music is so relevant in human interaction The last part of the book explores issues related to the social application of musical research The volume brings together specialists from different academic disciplines with the same powerful starting point music is not merely something related to the social but rather a social life itself something capable of structuring the social experience

Making Music in the Primary School Nick Beach, Julie Evans, Gary Spruce, 2010-12-16 An essential guide for teaching and learning music with the whole class It provides a framework for successful musical experiences with large groups of children and is illustrated throughout with carefully designed activities to try out in the classroom The guidance in this book will help you support and develop children's musical experience The Routledge Companion to Creativities in Music Education Clint Randles, Pamela Burnard, 2022-12-30 Viewing the plurality of creativity in music as being of paramount importance to the field of music education The Routledge Companion to Creativities in Music Education provides a wide ranging survey of practice and research perspectives Bringing together philosophical and applied foundations this volume draws together an array of international contributors including leading and emerging scholars to illuminate the multiple forms creativity can take in the music classroom and how new insights from research can inform pedagogical approaches In over 50 chapters it addresses theory practice research change initiatives community and broadening perspectives A vital resource for music education researchers practitioners and students this volume helps advance the discourse on creativities in music education Making Music at the Bottom of the World in Southland, Aotearoa/New Zealand Sally Bodkin-Allen, 2020-01-21 This volume brings together a number of perspectives on the musical landscape of Invercargill a city at the bottom of Aotearoa New Zealand Invercargill is in many ways unique it is relatively isolated its access to liquor is controlled by a licensing trust and it is home to the longest serving mayor in Aotearoa The musicking that occurs within Invercargill is surprisingly diverse and wide ranging This book acknowledges and explores many of the South s musical communities and in doing so illustrates the importance of music in local communities It highlights the ways in which social connectedness local identity and individual lives are enriched through musical activities being interwoven through communities The Australian Musical News ,1926 Making Money, Making Music David Bruenger, 2016-09-06 Musical experience as transaction Transience to permanence The rise of commercial markets Media revolutions Convergence and crossover Massification Scaling and selling live performance Visual media Artists audiences and brands Digitization State of the art Journal of the New York State Teachers' Association ,1914 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1910 Contemporary Archaeology and the City Laura McAtackney, Krysta Ryzewski, 2017-07-14 Contemporary Archaeology and the City foregrounds the archaeological study of post industrial and other urban transformations through a diverse international collection of case studies Over the past decade contemporary archaeology has emerged as a dynamic force for dissecting and contextualizing the material complexities of present day societies Contemporary archaeology challenges conventional anthropological and archaeological conceptions of the past by pushing temporal boundaries closer to if not into the present The volume is organized around three themes that highlight the multifaceted character of urban transitions in present day cities creativity ruination and political action The case studies offer comparative perspectives on transformative global urban processes in local contexts through research conducted in the struggling post industrial cities of Detroit Belfast Indianapolis Berlin Liverpool Bel m and post Apartheid Cape Town as well as the thriving urban centres of Melbourne New York City London Chicago and Istanbul Together the volume contributions demonstrate how the contemporary city is an urban palimpsest comprised by archaeological assemblages of the built environment the surface and buried sub surface that are traces of the various pasts entangled with one another in the present This volume aims to position the city as one of the most important and dynamic arenas for archaeological studies of the contemporary by presenting a range of theoretically engaged case studies that highlight some of the major issues that the study of contemporary cities pose for archaeologists
