My Life in the Sea of Cars James Andrew Murray,2009 James Murray recounts nine days spent in the remote and beautiful landscapes of the Northern Territory yet this is much more than a book about bushwalking A delicate hymn to the wilderness of Northern Australia My Life in the Sea of Cars A Letter from Arnhem Land is a journey of personal exploration and self discovery and a passionate argument for a new way of living The ways in which rampant consumerism and an obsession with the motor car have become so entrenched in people s lives is explored through relationships memory culture identity and the meditative act of walking When Murray candidly reveals his own family secrets and likely ancestry his book takes on yet another dimension Totally original and heartbreakingly honest Murray asks us the difficult awkward questions that will not go away Where has our culture gone so wrong

Replenishing the Sea of Galilee Wagih Abu-Rish,2021-08-17 For fans of Khaled Hosseini Anita Diamant and Isabelle Allende comes a sweeping story of love loss and the power of loyalty in the face of conflicting ideologies and religious beliefs The story begins in 1940s Palestine where twins Rasheed and Rasheeda Dinar work in the family s inns When Rasheed falls in love with Natalia a Jewish woman he applies what he learned from the Jesuit priest who mentored him to his budding relationship but by then relations between Arabs and Jews have become tense And when those tensions come to a breaking point Natalia mysteriously disappears and Rasheed and Rasheeda are chased out of Palestine forced to flee to Beirut Lebanon As the years pass and the Dinar family expands and enters the 1970s their convictions are tested Until the family reunites and proves that the thin line separating people because of their differences is powerless against the strength of family love and loyalty
