

Ludlow

South Shropshire

Think of the most beautiful inland landscape you can imagine. Rolling hills, rugged peaks, sweeping valleys, tumbling streams and a patchwork of green and golden fields in a generous lowland. You've just thought of south Shropshire.

At Ludlow's end of the remembered hills and low country remains as magical today as it was in the 13th century when the great men and gentry pulled together the 43 poems which comprise A Shropshire Lad.

Today the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty covers around a quarter of the county, including some 30 different hills and is a haven for walkers, bikers, horse riders, cyclists and anyone with an interest in the great outdoors.

The market towns which are dotted across the rich, diverse, landscape are just as memorable. Ludlow, Church Stretton, Ous, Craven Arms, Bishop's Cleeve and Oswestry Market are other magnificent sights and attractions to see (see page 10).
