The War Artist:

The War Artist Steven Kelly, 1998-06-01 The War Artist Jan Casey, 2024-05-09 Poignant warm gut wrenching and hopeful this book is just beautiful 5 reader review Excuse me the man interrupted her as if there was absolutely nothing she could say to comfort him I have to get on with my digging Then he stabbed violently at her sketchbook with his finger Get it all down he snarled Every single disgusting pathetic detail And shove it in their faces London 1940 Following a chance meeting with her former teacher young painter Sybil Paige wins a coveted assignment from the War Artists Advisory Committee and so begins her journey across the length and breadth of the country sketching everything from airfields and assembly lines to farms and factories Sometimes it's milkmaids and poultry keepers brave and hopeful sometimes it's the harrowed faces of those digging through the rubble to find their loved ones and livelihoods But armed with her sketchbook Sybil captures it all determined to tell the stories of the thousands of women fighting their own battles on the home front Above all she wants the voices of her subjects to shine through But amidst the scenes of despair and courage the one picture Sybil cannot paint and yet cannot purge from her brain no matter how hard she tries is the image of a woman folded into a chair the crumpled telegram about her missing husband clasped in her hand Because a self portrait Sybil well knows requires the artist to find her own voice With each new commission Sybil grows in confidence But like the many people she meets and sketches she fears the future will it bring hope or heartbreak Readers love THE WAR ARTIST I read this over 2 days unable to tear myself away I laughed and cried along this journey It was a history lesson like no other Reader review Enthralling and captivating I truly couldn't put it down Reader review Excellent Jan has written a memorable story about a war time artist that's so descriptive you are completely immersed in it I thoroughly enjoyed it Reader review Well written and well researched and kept me hooked till the end Reader review World War II in Asia and the Pacific and the War's Aftermath, with General Themes Loyd Lee, 1998-10-23 A companion to World War II in Europe Africa and the Americas this volume reevaluates the most enduring literature on basic aspects of the war in Asia and the Pacific It also covers themes pertaining to societies at war culture the arts and science and technology as well as international relations and the postwar world Included are not only grand strategy military and naval campaigns and matters of diplomacy but also resistance collaboration prisoners of war and broad topics of the home front including chapters on gender issues film literature popular culture and propaganda This volume and its companion provide the first comprehensive historiographic reference work on the war Each chapter describes the state of knowledge on the topic relating each bibliographic reference to the chapter's themes and issues and concludes with a bibliography Recent original scholarship is included when it aids new understanding and older works of enduring value also find a place The essays in this volume will interest scholars and college teachers as well as advanced students and serious amateurs seeking insight into the history of the war and its literature Donald Friend, Australian War Artist, 1945 Gavin Fry, Colleen Fry, 1982 Colours of War Alan Ross, 1983 Outstanding were the large scale works dealing with aerial warfare of England by Paul Nash a survivor of the Western Front Three exceptionally talented war artists were killed Eric Ravilious whose subjects ranged from northern convoys and submarines to the Fleet Air Arm Albert Richards who painted paratroopers and tank battles during the advance into Germany and Thomas Hennell who began work in trawlers off Iceland and was last seen in Java The war in Europe the Middle East and Burma was recorded variously by Edward Bawden Anthony Gross Edward Ardizzone and William Coldstream Leonard Rosoman drew aircraft on the flight decks of carriers in Japanese waters Barnett Freedman produced studies of submarine and battleship crews Some of the most dramatic paintings of the war were those made by Richard Eurich of preparations for D Day In almost every case active service had a crucial effect on the subsequent work of war artists

The American Magazine of Art ,1918 The Windsor Magazine ,1900 Drawing Hell J P Morthen,2025-08-26 From the sweltering battlefields of the South Pacific to the devastated cities of Europe Alan Moore witnessed the greatest war in human history not with a rifle but with a paintbrush As an official war artist with the RAAF Moore was sent deep into the action capturing history as it unfolded He documented the brutal Japanese counterattack at Los Negros Island the perilous missions of airmen dodging flak over Eastern Europe and the harrowing reality inside one of Nazi Germany's most infamous concentration camps With his camera sketchbook and oil paints he recorded not just battles but the human cost of war the exhaustion the fear the destruction and the small moments of resilience that defined a generation Yet despite his remarkable body of work Alan Moore remains one of Australia's forgotten artists His paintings raw and unfiltered serve as powerful reminders of the horrors of war ensuring that the sacrifices of those who served are never lost to history Through meticulous research and rare archival materials Drawing Hell unearths the story of a man whose work still hangs in some of the world's most prestigious museums and galleries Moore's life spanned a century of conflict change and artistic evolution yet his story has remained largely untold until now In this gripping account historian John Morthen brings Moore's legacy back into the spotlight revealing how his art shaped the way we remember war For those who believe history should never be forgotten Drawing Hell is an essential read
