

The image shows a close-up of the exterior of a building with a light-colored brick facade. The bricks are laid in a traditional pattern, with some decorative elements like pilasters. Mounted on the wall is a large, three-dimensional sign for "The Washington Post". The sign is made of a dark, possibly green or black, material with a slightly weathered or metallic appearance. The letters are in a classic, gothic-style serif font. The sign is affixed to the wall with visible mounting hardware. Below the sign, there are several windows with dark frames, some of which are partially visible. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting a clear day.
