Social Work in Northern Ireland Heenan, Deirdre, Birrell, Derek, 2011-03-23 Over the past 40 years social work in Northern Ireland has been responsive to a number of changing contexts and environments Throughout the Troubles social workers had to develop methods of ensuring services were delivered in spite of the surrounding violence and civil disturbance At the same time they developed imaginative and creative new services in response to needs and demands This book outlines the historical development of social work in Northern Ireland looking at what has been achieved and analyzing the challenges for the future It considers the role of social work in a society emerging from conflict facing demographic technological and economic changes Social work in Northern Ireland has been dismissed by policy makers and academics as unique special or different and therefore not worthy of attention This book demonstrates that international audiences have much to learn from the social work response to a changing political landscape

Peace 1996-2000 Irwin Abrams, 2005 In addition to the presentation speeches and the Nobel lectures these volumes also provide brief biographies and the Nobel laureates own accounts of their many years of preparation and effort that led to their achievements The last decade of the twentieth century is already proving to be as dramatic as any decade before The chances of global peace seem stronger now than at any time since 1900 and the people and organizations that have contributed most towards this progress are recognized by the Norwegian Nobel Committee The Nobel Peace prizewinners during the period 1996 2000 include men women and organizations whose principles dedication and diligence continue to shape history Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1996 2000 1996 C F X BELO 1997 INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN TO BAN LANDMINES ICBL 1998 J HUME 1999 DOCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS in recognition of the organization's pioneering humanitarian work on several continents 2000 D J KIM for his work for democracy and human rights in South Korea and in East Asia in general and for peace and reconciliation with North Korea in particular

Anti-Racist Social Work Gurnam Singh, Shepard Masocha, 2019-12-04 Welfare health education conflict security and migration are examples of phenomena that are prevalent across all societies With chapters from leading scholars from around the world this exciting new book draws upon the impacts of globalisation colonialism and capitalism to explore the common challenges facing nations across the globe and provide an insight in to the history theory and practice of a new anti racist social work

Terrorism and War Jean Arundale, Coline Covington, Jean Knox, Paul ((Psychotherapist)) Williams, 2018-03-29 Following the attacks of September 11th 2001 one of the resounding questions asked was What would make anyone do such a thing The psychological mentality of the suicidal terrorist left a gaping hole in people's understanding This essential volume represents a much needed effort to collate and examine some of the material already at our disposal as an encouragement to serious thought on this question and other related questions If terrorism is not new what is it about the recent attacks that gives us a sense that something has changed Is it the scale of the destruction or the anxiety that we are facing some altogether new uncertainty Are we in some sense facing a new enemy In reflecting on these and other related questions we may be facing a similar watershed of understanding to that faced by Freud at the end of the Great War In the absence of progress in our thinking today political leaders and public opinion will likely turn to previous political and religious ideas investing in them with a fundamentalist certainty that spells disaster

Conflict, peace and mental health David Bolton, 2025-11-11 A powerful guide for dealing with traumatised communities in the wake of conflict and disaster What are the human consequences of conflict and how should healthcare and social services respond In this book David Bolton provides an answer to these urgent questions drawing on more than twenty five years of service experience in Northern Ireland and elsewhere Focusing on the work he undertook with colleagues following the devastating Omagh bombing in 1998 Bolton reveals how needs were assessed and how evidence based services were put in place He describes the training and education programmes that were developed to assist first those communities directly affected by the bombing and later the wider population traumatised by the years of conflict Crucially he places the mental health needs of affected communities at the heart of the political and peace processes that follow The second edition of this clear and practical book includes new chapters on the challenges of promoting justice and reconciliation in a post conflict situation It is essential reading for those planning for and responding to conflict related disasters policy makers service commissioners and providers politicians civil servants and peace makers

Making Geographies of Peace and Conflict Colin Flint, Kara E. Dempsey, 2023-11-17 This book illustrates the diversity of current geographies ontologies engagements and epistemologies of peace and conflict It emphasizes how agencies of peace and conflict occur in geographic settings and how those settings shape processes of peace and conflict The essence of the book's logic is that war and peace are manifestations of the intertwined construction of geographies and politics Indeed peace is never completely distinct from war Each chapter in the book will demonstrate understandings of how the myriad spaces of war and peace are forged by multiple agencies some possibly contradictory The goals of these agents vary as peace and war are relational place specific processes The reader will understand the mutual construction of spaces and processes of peace and conflict through engagement with the concepts of agency the mutual construction of politics and space geographic scales multiple geographies the twin dynamics of empathy othering and inclusivity partitioning and resistance militarism The book discusses the intertwined nature of peace and conflict including reference to the environment global climate change borders technology and postcolonialism This book is valuable for instructors teaching a variety of senior level human geography courses including graduate level classes It will appeal to those working in political geography historical geography sociology of geographic knowledge feminist geography cultural and economic geography political science and international relations The Parliamentary Debates: Official Report Northern Ireland. Parliament. House of Commons,1938 Fortnight ,2004 Northern Ireland's Troubles Marie-Therese Fay, Mike Morrissey, Marie Smyth,1999 An up to date analysis of the problems faced by Iran s Kurdish population

Confronting Oppression, Restoring Justice Katherine S. Van Wormer,2004 An empowerment approach is the organizing framework for this text which examines the nature of oppression who does it and why from the standpoint of biological and social psychological aspects The impact on victim survivors is explored through the inclusion of brief personal narratives recording grueling consciousness raising experiences This book is appropriate for courses in oppression racism and policy analysis A small paperback it can be used as a supplement to a course such as human behavior and the social environment Divided into two parts the first of which focuses on oppression and the second on the twin concept of injustice Confronting Oppression and Restoring Justice has as its major task the addressing of the age old question for social workers How can we avoid participating in the oppression Or working from the outside How can we help the casualties of economic restructuring or the victims of structural or interpersonal violence Examples of exemplary programs and actions to confront oppression and injustice are provided The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1927 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament.
