LENT 2026 DAILY DEVOTIONAL FOR CATHOLIC WOMEN Rosa D. Keck, What if Lent didn't feel like a burden What if it met you in the middle of your real life your responsibilities your fatigue and your unanswered questions and gently drew you closer to God instead of overwhelming you LENT 2026 DAILY DEVOTIONAL FOR CATHOLIC WOMEN was written with that hope at its core Not to ask more of you than you can give Not to become another task on an already full list But to remind you that authentic faith begins by meeting God exactly where you are Inside this Catholic Lent Devotional for Women You'll Discover Daily Scripture Readings Begin each day with God's Word grounding your prayer in truth not pressure Thoughtful Daily Reflections Understand the meaning of the season and how Christ's journey speaks to your everyday life as a woman of faith What This Means for You Insights See how Scripture applies to your struggles relationships and hopes bridging faith and real life Daily Prayers Written from the Heart Pray honestly even when distracted or unsure what to say Questions for the Heart and Mind Reflect deeply gently and without feeling examined or judged Simple Step for Today Take one small meaningful action each day that keeps Lent doable and grace filled A Devotional Rhythm That Fits Busy Lives Stay consistent without guilt even on days when you fall behind A Compassionate Path to Easter Renewal Move toward Easter with a softened heart renewed faith and deeper trust in God's love Like many women you've probably entered Lent with the best of intentions only to feel discouraged a few days in Time slips away Energy runs thin And often the books you turn to feel distant from the life you're living juggling responsibilities emotions and unseen struggles Too often Lent becomes about trying harder instead of drawing closer The truth is many Lenten devotionals weren't created for women with busy imperfect lives But what if Lent could meet you with grace not pressure This book offers a gentle life giving approach to Lent explicitly created for Catholic women who long for depth without overwhelm Through daily Scripture reflections prayers and simple spiritual steps this devotional helps you walk through Lent with honesty peace and purpose Whether you want to renew your prayer life heal interior dryness or prepare your heart for Easter this guide meets you where you are and leads you forward with compassion Imagine entering Easter quietly changed where prayer feels like a refuge instead of an obligation and where God's presence meets you in your everyday reality You'll finish this season feeling more loved more confident and more connected to Christ You don't need more time stronger discipline or a perfect prayer routine to have a meaningful Lent Whether you're seeking renewal healing or simply a deeper connection with God the time to begin is now Get your copy today and let this Lent become a season of grace not guilt A Question of Being Karin Holsinger Sherman, 2007-07-20 James Douglass's writings have been recognized as among the most challenging and inspiring explorations of nonviolence and Christian discipleship in the last century Throughout his career Douglass has argued forcefully for the integration of contemplation and resistance theology and cultural critique spirituality and prophetic involvement His work has inspired many of the key figures in recent debates regarding just war Christian nonviolence and radical discipleship and continues to be highly relevant in our contemporary situation In A Question of Being the first book length treatment published on Douglass s writings Karin Holsinger Sherman provides an introduction to and engagement with this important body of work through an exploration into its contextual history influences and main themes Moreover the author argues that these themes work together to create an ontology of nonviolence an ontology that integrates the forces of resistance and contemplation so important to Douglass The book begins by examining Douglass s biography and three broad historical trajectories that give context to his thought the fusion of Christianity and American nationalism in the early Cold War period the emergence of cultural critique in the late fifties and early sixties and the Catholic pacifist tradition and the post 1972 period of disillusionment Holsinger Sherman then considers the lives and thought of Dorothy Day Mahatma Gandhi and Thomas Merton as well as their unique intellectual and exemplary influence on Douglass s ideas After explicating the themes of the cross and the kingdom as they developed chronologically in Douglass s writing career this book draws together Douglass s thought to reveal an ontology of nonviolence In her conclusion Holsinger Sherman argues that this ontology of nonviolence is the key to understanding Douglass s integral theology of contemplation and resistance
