Truth At Any Cost:

Truth and Eros John Rajchman,2013-01-11 In this reissued work first published in 1991 John Rajchman isolates the question of ethics in the work of Foucault and Lacan and explores its ramifications and implications for the present day He demonstrates that the question of ethics was at once the most difficult and the most intimate question for these two authors offering a complex point of intersection between them As such he argues that it belongs to the great tradition that is concerned with the passion or eros of philosophy and of its will to truth Truth and Eros suggests a way of reading Foucault and Lacan as philosophers who re eroticised the activity of thought in our time opening new and different spaces for thought and action new types of subjectivity
