Two Friends In Love:

Friendship, Love, and Brotherhood in Medieval Northern Europe, c. 1000-1200 Lars Hermanson, 2019-05-15 In this book Lars Hermanson discusses how religious beliefs and norms steered attitudes to friendship and love and how these ways of thinking affected social identity and political behaviour With examples taken from eleventh and twelfth century northern Europe the author investigates why friendship was praised both by brotherhoods of aristocratic warriors and by brethren within monastery walls Social and political functions rested on personal connections rather than a strong central state in the High Middle Ages This meant that friendship was an important pragmatic instrument for establishing social order and achieving success in the game of politics

Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill, 2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet's wellness This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co-flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving
