The Symphonic Repertoire, Volume I Mary Sue Morrow, 2024-03-29 Central to the repertoire of Western art music since the 18th century the symphony has come to be regarded as one of the ultimate compositional challenges In his five volume series The Symphonic Repertoire the late A Peter Brown explores the symphony from its 18th century beginnings to the end of the 20th century In Volume 1 The Eighteenth Century Symphony 22 of Brown s former students and colleagues collaborate to complete the work that he began on this critical period of development in symphonic history The work follows Brown s outline is organized by country and focuses on major composers It includes a four chapter overview and concludes with a reframing of the symphonic narrative Contributors address issues of historiography the status of research and questions of attribution and stylistic traits and provide background material on the musical context of composition and early performances The volume features a CD of recordings from the Bloomington Early Music Festival Orchestra highlighting the largely unavailable repertoire discussed in the book

The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 Rhoderick McNeill, 2016-03-23 The symphony retained its primacy as the most prestigious large scale orchestral form throughout the first half of the twentieth century particularly in Britain Russia and the United States Likewise Australian composers produced a steady stream of symphonies throughout the period from Federation 1901 through to the end of the 1950s Stylistically these works ranged from essays in late nineteenth century romanticism twentieth century nationalism neo classicism and near atonality Australian symphonies were most prolific during the 1950s with 36 local entries in the 1951 Commonwealth Jubilee Symphony competition This extensive repertoire was overshadowed by the emergence of a new generation of composers and critics during the 1960s who tended to regard older Australian music as old fashioned and derivative The Australian Symphony from Federation to 1960 is the first study of this neglected genre and has four aims firstly to show the development of symphonic composition in Australia from Federation to 1960 secondly to highlight the achievement of the main composers who wrote symphonies thirdly to advocate the restoration and revival of this repertory and lastly to take a step towards a recasting of the narrative of Australian concert music from Federation to the present In particular symphonies by Marshall Hall Hart Bainton Hughes Le Gallienne and Morgan emerge as works of particular note
