Gary Spruce, Johannella Tafuri, Sandra E. Trehub, Colwyn Trevarthen, Kari K. Veblen, Graham F. Welch, Heidi Westerlund, Jackie Wiggins, Ruth Wright, Susan Young Teaching Music in the Primary School 2/e Joanna Glover, Stephen Ward, 1998-11-01 Music's place in the National Curriculum in England and Wales is now firmly established. This book is a guide to help all primary teachers and those with a coordinating role who support them develop music in their classrooms; it looks at children's learning in music in the context of current thinking on primary education and the developments of primary music since 1991. There are well-researched chapters on promoting children's musical composition and the ways in which music can be related to the whole primary curriculum. With a wealth of straightforward practical ideas, a revised chapter on assessment and a new chapter on the role of the music coordinator, this new edition of Teaching Music in the Primary School will be indispensable reading for all primary teachers, primary music coordinators and those running music courses in teacher education at undergraduate, postgraduate or INSET levels. The editors are both at Bath Spa University College where Joanna Glover is a Senior Lecturer in Music Education and Stephen Ward is Head of Department of Primary Education in the Faculty of Education and Human Sciences. Special Report on the Teaching of Music in the Elementary Schools Edward Brooks, 1895 Teaching Music Creatively Pamela Burnard, Regina Murphy, 2017-05-18 Fully updated in light of the latest research and practice in primary education, Teaching Music Creatively offers all teachers a comprehensive understanding of how to develop, deliver and enjoy a creative music curriculum. It is inspired by the belief that all those concerned with primary education have a deep interest in creativity and supports teachers in developing the confidence to teach and celebrate creative music teaching throughout school. With groundbreaking contributions from international experts in the field, it offers well-tested strategies for developing children's musical creativity, knowledge, skills and understanding. This edition includes a brand new chapter on teaching interculturally, showing how children can reach their full creative potential and not be constrained by cultural stereotyping. Key topics covered include Creative teaching and what it means to teach creatively, Composition, listening and notation, Spontaneous music making, Group music and performance, The use of multimedia, Integration of music into the wider curriculum, Musical play, Assessment and planning. Teaching Music Creatively is packed with practical, innovative ideas for teaching music in a lively and imaginative way, together with the theory and background necessary to develop a comprehensive understanding of creative teaching methods. It is an invaluable resource for all those training to become primary school teachers, as well as practicing teachers looking for support and inspiration, and undergraduate students of music and education. Music in Childhood Patricia Shehan Campbell, Carol Scott-Kassner, Kirk Kassner, 2006 This comprehensive text presents contemporary theories and practices of music education, including strategies for developing pitch, vocal, rhythmic, instrumental, listening, movement and creative responses in children. Psychological Perspectives on Musical Experiences and Skills Blanka Bogunović, Renee Timmers, Sanela Nikolić, 2024-06-20 Psychology of Music is a flourishing area of research in the Western Balkans. However, much of its findings and insights have remained relatively unknown outside the region Psychological Perspectives on Musical Experiences and Skills features recent research from the Western Balkans foregrounding its specific topics methods and influences and bringing it into productive conversation with complementary research from Western Europe and further afield The essays in this collection investigate the psychology of listening and performance and their relevance to music practice Employing a range of research methodologies they address divergent themes from a cross cultural understanding of aesthetic experiences and innovations to attract new audiences to developmental perspectives on musical growth and the challenges of mastering performance skills Authors reflect independently and collaboratively on how these psychological processes are shaped by the different traditions and geopolitical conditions inside and outside the Western Balkans The result is a volume that emphasizes how musical experiences and practices happen not in isolation but in socio cultural environments that contribute to their definition This work will appeal to musicians music educators students researchers and psychologists with an interest in the psychology of music and exemplify ways forward in decolonizing academia
