The Kangaroo:

The Emergence of Meaning Stephen Crain, 2012-08-30 Over the past forty years scientists have developed models of human reasoning based on the principle that human languages and classical logic involve fundamentally different concepts and different methods of interpretation In The Emergence of Meaning Stephen Crain challenges this view arguing that a common logical nativism underpins human language and logical reasoning The approach which Crain takes is twofold Firstly he uncovers the underlying meanings of logical expressions and logical principles that appear in typologically different languages English and Mandarin Chinese and he demonstrates that these meanings and principles directly correspond to the expressions and structures of classical logic Secondly he reports the findings of new experimental studies which investigate how children acquire the logical concepts of these languages A step by step introduction to logic and a comprehensive review of the literature on child language acquisition make this work accessible to those unfamiliar with either field Playing the Game Sarah McLean Mullen, Muriel Simpson Lanz, 1928 Ecocritical Concerns and the Australian Continent Beate Neumeier, Helen Tiffin, 2019-11-08 Ecocritical Concerns and the Australian Continent investigates literary historical anthropological and linguistic perspectives in connection with activist engagements The necessary cross fertilization between these different perspectives throughout this volume emerges in the resonances between essays exploring recurring concerns ranging from biodiversity and preservation policies to the devastating effects of the mining industries to present concerns and futuristic visions of the effects of climate change Of central concern in all of these contexts is the impact of settler colonialism and an increasing turn to indigenous knowledge systems A number of chapters engage with questions of ecological imperialism in relation to specific sociohistorical moments and effects probing early colonial encounters between settlers and indigenous people or rereading specific forms of colonial literature Other essays take issue with past and present constructions of indigeneity in different contexts as well as with indigenous resistance against such ascriptions while the importance of an understanding of indigenous notions of care for country is taken up from a variety of different disciplinary angles in terms of interconnectedness anchoredness living country and living heritage Popular Natural History John George Wood, 1885 Animal Land Kade Chattan, 1898 The Humboldt Library of Science, 1885 St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1921 The Badminton magazine of sports and pastimes, ed. by A.E.T.
