The Apple Lady:

The Apple Lady Mary McDonald, 2006 The Apple Lady Robert Starr, 2004-11-01 It's fitting no one who survived knew her real name and by the time it made a difference to me which was as soon as I put it all together everyone who knew her personally was dead Only two were left who knew of her and they were all I had to go on that pair with one foot here and one over there who'd buffed their denial to such a fine polish only I could see through the shine So I started off stranded between a smoke and mirrors show trying to build a family history from their testimonials and my own imagination But I found my answers They just weren't what I'd expected Douglas Halloway was the first of these people I knew I know him still because he's my father and one of the first things I learned about him when I was too young to learn such horrible truths about people was he failed his father the Apple Lady's son and that turned him bitter against everything including me his motherless son And I learned he'll always struggle with a spectral reality that's neither here nor there miming at a past he can't touch that's like a sharp smell triggering disturbing grey memories The Apple and Its Varieties, Etc.
