The Joy Of Cats:

Abstract and Concrete Categories Jiri Adamek, Horst Herrlich, George E. Strecker, 1990-04-26 A modern introduction to the theory of structures via the language of category theory Unique to this book is the emphasis on concrete categories Also noteworthy is the systematic treatment of factorization structures which gives a new unifying perspective to earlier work and summarizes recent developments Each categorical notion is accompanied by many examples usually moving from special cases to more general cases Comprises seven chapters the first five present the basic theory while the last two contain more recent research results in the realm of concrete categories cartesian closed categories and quasitopoi The prerequisite is an elementary knowledge of set theory Contains exercises

The Joy of Cats, 2008 Ideal for feline devotees this feast of cat worship gathers together the numerous authors and thinkers from throughout the ages who have written about cats From Darwin Twain and Wordsworth to Lewis Carroll T S Eliot and Edward Lear an astounding range of personalities have not only had deep relationships with cats but also put pen to paper to explain just how wonderful that relationship can be Cats have padded silently into our hearts bringing with them their grace independence and essential mystery and this enthralling collection seeks to unveil how and why humans have become so fond of these delightful creatures
