The Secret Rose Garden of Sa’d Ud Din Maḥmūd Shabistārī Florence Lederer,2020-09-28 The S f s conception of the Beloved is essentially personal though there is nothing to show that they worshipped Him as a person or assigned to Him a form Being pantheists they probably believed that He was the One Light shining in myriad forms through the whole universe One essence remaining the same Every moment the robber Beauty rises in a different shape ravishes the soul and disappears Every instant the Loved One assumes a new garment now of old now of youth Now He plunged into the heart of the substance of the potter s clay the Spirit plunged like a diver Anon He rose from the depths of mud that is moulded and baked Then he appeared in the world And J m declares In neighbour friend companion Him we see In beggar s rags or robes of royalty In Union s cell or in distraction haunts There s none but He by God there s none but He The S f s realized that it is impossible in spatial terms to describe that which is even beyond pure spirit Plotinus has told us in a beautiful passage that a We must not be surprised that that which excites the keenest of longings is without any form even spiritual form since the soul itself when inflamed with love for it puts off all the form which it had even that which belongs to the spiritual world The inability to describe to the uninitiated the secret love of the mystic for the Unknowable is made the subject of an exquisite poem by the Indian poet Tagore I boasted among men that I had known you They see your picture in all works of mine They come and ask me who is he I know not how to answer them I say Indeed I cannot tell They blame me and they go away in scorn And you sit there smiling I put my tales of you into lasting songs The secret gushes out from my heart They come and ask me Tell me all your meaning I know not how to answer them I say Ah who knows what they mean They smile and go away in utter scorn And you sit there smiling
