The Visiting Angels Vikentia Chass,1999-07

The Sociology of Caregiving John G. Bruhn,Howard M.

Rebach,2014-05-27 This volume conceptualizes caregiving as an emerging sociological issue involving complex and fluctuating roles The authors contend that caregiving must be considered in the context of the life span with needs that vary according to age developmental levels mental health needs and physical health demands of both caregivers and care recipients As the nature and functions of caregiving evolve it has become a critical and salient issue in the lives of individuals in all demographic socioeconomic and ethnic categories This volume frames caregiving as a sociological issue and addresses a number of central concerns such as Caregiving is a life span experience associated with aging and the roles of spouses and adult children Caregiving involves a complex of social system variables that influence the social support and services to caregivers and care recipients The nature of the relationship among family caregivers professional caregivers and the care recipient are embedded in their interaction and dynamics influenced by the internal and external variables that inhibit or facilitate the care situation How can caregiving be integrated with a public health agenda What disparities or inequalities exist in caregiving and what are the barriers that sustain them What community based interventions need to be developed to improve caregiving

Journeys in Holy Lands Reuven Firestone,1990-01-01 Scholars have long pointed to the great affinity between stories found in the Bible and the Qur an yet no explanation has been proposed that satisfactorily explains the odd combination of incredible likeness and unique divergence Firestone provides a refreshing new approach to scriptural issues of textuality exegesis and the origins and use of legend This book clearly presents the full range of Islamic legends from the Qur an and early Islamic exegesis about Abraham s journeys and adventures in the Land of Canaan and Arabia many of them available for the first time in English translation The author examines this broad sample of Islamic legends in relation to those found in Jewish Christian and pre Islamic Arabian communities and postulates an evolutionary journey of the literature He presents a thorough textual analysis of the material and proposes a model for understanding early Islamic narrative based in literary theory approaches to comparative religion and the history of the pre Islamic and early Islamic Middle East
