Dictionary of Louisiana French Albert Valdman, Kevin J. Rottet, Barry Jean Ancelet, Richard Guidry, Thomas A. Klingler, Amanda LaFleur, Tamara Lindner, Michael D. Picone, Dominique Ryon, 2010-09-30 The Dictionary of Louisiana French DLF provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana the coastal marshes the banks of the Mississippi River the central area the north and the western prairie Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty four areas in these regions In addition to the data collected from fieldwork the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings The new authoritative resource the DLF not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling the pronunciation including attested variants the part of speech classification the English equivalent and the word s use in common phrases The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in la Louisiane

French Course for Americans Thatcher Clark, 1922 Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana Joshua Clegg Caffery, 2013-11-05 Alan Lomax s prolific sixty four year career as a folklorist and musicologist began with a trip across the South and into the heart of Louisiana s Cajun country during the height of the Great Depression In 1934 his father John then curator of the Library of Congress s Archive of American Folk Song took an eighteen year old Alan and a 300 pound aluminum disk recorder into the rice fields of Jennings along the waterways of New Iberia and behind the gates of Angola State Penitentiary to collect vestiges of African American and Acadian musical tradition These recordings now serve as the foundational document of indigenous Louisiana music Although widely recognized by scholars as a key artifact in the understanding of American vernacular music most of the recordings by John and Alan Lomax during their expedition across the central southern fringe of Louisiana were never transcribed or translated much less studied in depth This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive examination of the 1934 corpus and unveils a multifaceted story of traditional song in one of the country s most culturally dynamic regions Through his textual and comparative study of the songs contained in the Lomax collection Joshua Clegg Caffery provides a musical history of Louisiana that extends beyond Cajun music and zydeco to the rural blues Irish and English folk songs play party songs slave spirituals and traditional French folk songs that thrived at the time of these recordings Intimate in its presentation of Louisiana folklife and broad in its historical scope Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana honors the legacy of John and Alan Lomax by retrieving these musical relics from obscurity and ensuring their understanding and appreciation for generations to come Includes Complete transcriptions of the 1934 Lomax field recordings in southwestern Louisiana Side by side translations from French to English Photographs from the 1934 field trip and biographical details about the performers The First French Tutor Ernest B. Chérifel La Grave,1871 Semantic and Lexical Universals Cliff Goddard,Anna Wierzbicka,1994-05-04 This set of papers represents a unique collection it is the first attempt ever to empirically test a hypothetical set of semantic and lexical universals across a number of genetically and typologically diverse languages In fact the word collection is not fully appropriate in this case since the papers report research undertaken specifically for the present volume and shaped by the same guidelines They constitute parallel and strictly comparable answers to the same set of questions coordinated effort with a common aim and a common methodology The goal of identifying the universal human concepts found in all languages is of fundamental importance both from a theoretical and a practical point of view since these concepts provide the basis of the psychic unity of mankind underlying the clearly visible diversity of human cultures They also allow us to better understand that diversity itself because they provide a common measure without which no precise and meaningful comparisons are possible at all A set of truly universal or even near universal concepts can provide us with an invaluable tool for interpreting and explaining all the culture specific meanings encoded in the language and culture systems of the world It can also provide us with a tool for explaining meanings across cultures in education business trade international relations and so on The book contains 13 chapters on individual languages including Japanese by Masayuki Onishi Chinese by Hilary Chappel Thai by Anthony Diller Ewe Africa by Felix Ameka Miskitu languages of South America by Kenneth Hall Australian Aboriginal languages Aranda Yankunytjatjara and Kayardild by Jean Harkins Semantic theory and semantic universals by Goddard Introducing lexical primitives by Goddard and Wierzbicka and Semantic primitives across languages a critical review by Wierzbicka notions of propositional modality are grammaticized and obligatorily expressed in the language The findings are interpreted within non nativist theoretical frameworks Usage based theories Natural Morphology The Gramophone ,1925 Il tabarro Giacomo Puccini,Giuseppe Adami,Marie Thérèse Paquin,Giovacchino Forzano,1985 complete french grammar w. h. fraser,1921 The New Fraser and Squair complete French grammar William Henry Fraser,1921 The Vulgate Version of the Arthurian Romances: Le livre de Lancelot del Lac. 1910-12 Heinrich Oskar Sommer,1911 New grammar of French grammars.
