Wild Conquest:

Wild Conquest Hannah Howell, 2009-11 Pleasance Dunstan is used to silently bearing the cruelties put upon her by her thoughtless family But nothing can prepare her for the greatest indignity of all being sold into servitude to a man as wild as Tearlach O Duine His untamed ways are whispered of throughout town and he has set his sights on Pleasance to be more than his servant He will have her in his bed Pleasance could escape this fate with a word but her fierce pride keeps her silent Instead she follows her new master to the rough lands where he has made a home and finds a world beyond any she has ever known a world of desire For though he is her captor only Tearlach can show her how freeing true passion can be and while her servitude to him will one day end nothing can stop the binding of their hearts Page 4 of cover

Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand this third enlarged edition has become imperative Three new essays all previously published are added two expectedly on Achebe the father of the African novel and one on Mongp Beti s Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27 1984 Achebe s Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S Okechukwu Menu 1971 The essay on Arrow of God whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics is included here for further airing For gender balance as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a south African writer for geographical balance complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters The South African Novel in English Kenneth Parker,1978-06-17 World Today ,1907 The Line Of Mercy Tarun J Tejpal,2022-03-22 In the thick air of a coastal town inside the iron bars manufactured by the laws of men life explodes with tropical ferocity Inferno purgatorio paradiso and limbo always limbo come together in a frantic soup of sadness and madness More truths and revelations are laid bare than can be claimed by any courtroom or church In his new novel Tarun J Tejpal takes the darkest of human material and unearths in it the unstoppable surge of the human spirit Writing in his inimitable tragicomic style he creates a spellbinding world of extraordinary characters and stories never encountered before The Line of Mercy is an epic and utterly original addition to the universal literature of crime and punishment Phylon Quarterly ,1950 Temple Bar ,1866 The World To-day ,1907 Marquis and Merchant Mortimer Collins,1871 Red Lodge and the Mythic West Bonnie Christensen,2002 Tracing the story of Red Lodge from the 1880s to the present Christensen tells how a mining town managed to endure the vagaries of the West s unpredictable extractive industries economy She connects Red Lodge to a myriad of larger events and historical forces to show how national and regional influences have contributed to the development of local identities exploring how and why westerners first rejected and then embraced western images and how ethnicity wilderness and historic preservation became part of the identity that defined one town BOOK JACKET Hearst's International ,1907

Novel Histories Michael Cawood Green,Michael Green,1997 This text is less a survey of the uses of history in modern South African fiction than a detailed claim for a kind of historical understanding which may emerge from fiction in the light of late 20th century theory relating to both history and fiction Western Wilds, and the Men who Redeem Them John Hanson Beadle,1877 Western Wilds John Hanson Beadle,1880 Excerpt The rolling prairies of Iowa were taking on their richest summer hues when I crossed from Prairie du Chien to McGregor the first Of June 1868 and entered upon a three hundred mile walk across the State The Land Of the Sleepy as the aboriginal name implies was just then the land of men particularly wide awake to their own interests I was but one of a grand army ever pushing westward active aggressive and defiant of space and time Iowa combined the advantages of both East and West and men of all North European races were crowding to possess it Page 17 Transactions of the Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archeological Society Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian and Archaeological Society,1874 List of members included in each volume except v 1 *The Journal of the Royal institution of Great Britain.
