Author From Solo to Scaled Building a Sustainable Content Strategy Practice A Happy Classroom Lois Allan Dommersnes, 2014-07-10 Just imagine millions of students young and old all over the world sitting still and listening Are they happy I think not It has been observed by educators and confirmed by non verbal mathematical evaluations that there is a measurable discrepancy between the potential and the actual performance of many students Conclusion reached is that the way we educate our students in educational establishments does not produce successful or happy people The purpose of this book is to identify and describe the raw material we have the students and their environment the tools we have books computers and the product we hope to produce creative and productive students To achieve this we need to design activities that will allow the students to be involved with each other and independent of each other We must also take into account special gifts varied abilities and handicaps Activities which do not address the above conditions such as text books exercises rote learning and various busy work tasks are killers of all the attributes we love in our students spontaneity creativity enthusiasm curiosity and humour During my last few years teaching K 12 I came up with activities that were mostly student generated They presented their work to the class and we graded it together I have spent much time on classroom management for without organization routine and order chaos reigns Equal understanding by both students and teachers of the benefits of the well run classroom will add much to the learning environment I also have taken some time in coming up with grading strategies As we spend much time on testing and grading we need first of all to free the teachers from this tedium and then examine whether the benefits to the students warrant so much time spent on the testing process Perhaps my most rewarding task was the organization and design of a grading rubric We had so much fun Most importantly the teacher with a hundred and fifty student reports has Teaching the Content Areas to English Language Learners in Secondary Schools Luciana C. de Oliveira, Kathryn M. Obenchain, Rachael H. Kenney, Alandeom W. Oliveira, 2019-01-17 This practitioner based book provides different approaches for reaching an increasing population in today's schools English language learners ELLs The recent development and adoption of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy in History Social Studies Science and Technical Subjects CCSS ELA Literacy the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics the C3 Framework and the Next Generation Science Standards NGSS highlight the role that teachers have in developing discipline specific competencies This requires new and innovative approaches for teaching the content areas to all students The book begins with an introduction that contextualizes the chapters in which the editors highlight transdisciplinary theories and approaches that cut across content areas In addition the editors include a table that provides a matrix of how strategies and theories map across the chapters The four sections of the book represent the following content areas English language arts mathematics science and social studies This book offers practical guidance that is grounded in relevant theory and research and offers teachers suggestions on how to use the approaches described

Integrating Literature in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2017-05-12 This practical accessible resource will help future and practicing teachers integrate literature into their middle school or high school classrooms while also addressing content area standards and improving the literacy skills of their students Two introductory chapters are followed by five chapters that each cover a different genre Chapter 3 Informational Books Chapter 4 Fiction Chapter 5 Biography Autobiography and Memoir Chapter 6 Poetry and Chapter 7 How to and Hands on Books Each genre chapter consists of four parts Part 1 Discusses the genre and how content area teachers can use books within that genre to further content learning and enhance literacy skills Part 2 Offers hands on instructional strategies and activities using literature with activities for use in a variety of disciplines Part 3 Presents individual author studies three or four per chapter with bibliographies and guidelines for using the authors books in content area courses Part 4 Features an annotated bibliography of specially selected children and young adult literature for that genre organized by content area The annotations provide information about the book which can be used to prepare booktalks and teaching ideas for using in a specific content area Altogether these sections contain more than 600 annotated entries tabbed by subject area including art English language arts languages and culture math and technology music PE health science and social studies history

The Materials of Reading Willis Lemon Uhl, 1924 Every supervisor and teacher of reading and literature is required to select and organize content for courses Even if a course of study is uniform for a city or state the successful teacher must supplement and reorganize the prescribed content to meet the needs of a specific class The purpose of this book is to facilitate such selection and organization by presenting an interpretation of the experiences of thousands of teachers and the conclusions of many investigators This book is intended for all teachers and prospective teachers of reading and literature
