Reclaiming the Discarded Kathleen M. Millar,2018-01-19 In Reclaiming the Discarded Kathleen M Millar offers an evocative ethnography of Jardim Gramacho a sprawling garbage dump on the outskirts of Rio de Janeiro where roughly two thousand self employed workers known as catadores collect recyclable materials While the figure of the scavenger sifting through garbage seems iconic of wageless life today Millar shows how the work of reclaiming recyclables is more than a survival strategy or an informal labor practice Rather the stories of catadores show how this work is inseparable from conceptions of the good life and from human struggles to realize these visions within precarious conditions of urban poverty By approaching the work of catadores as highly generative Millar calls into question the category of informality common conceptions of garbage and the continued normativity of wage labor In so doing she illuminates how waste lies at the heart of relations of inequality and projects of social transformation Routledge Library Editions: Women and Politics

Various,2021-06-23 Routledge Library Editions Women and Politics 9 Volume set presents titles originally published between 1981 and 1993 The set draws attention to the importance of women and how their presence and active involvement in politics and related fields during the twentieth century has been crucial throughout the world Corporate Welfare James

T. Bennett,2017-07-05 From the time of Alexander Hamilton s Report on Manufactures through the Great Depression American towns and cities sought to lure footloose companies by offering lavish benefits These ranged from taxpayer financed factories to tax exemptions to outright gifts of money This kind of government aid known as corporate welfare is still around today After establishing its historical foundations James T Bennett reveals four modern manifestations His first case is the epochal debate over government subsidy of a supersonic transport aircraft The second case has its origins in Southern factory relocation programs of the 1930s the practice of state and local governments granting companies taxpayer financed incentives The third is the taking of private property for the enrichment of business interests The fourth export subsidies has its genesis in the New Deal but matured with the growth of the Export Import Bank which subsidizes international business exchanges of America s largest corporate entities Bennett examines the prospects for a successful anti corporate welfare coalition of libertarians free market conservatives Greens and populists The potential for a coalition is out there he argues Whether a canny politician can assemble and maintain it long enough to mount a taxpayer counterattack upon corporate welfare is an intriguing question Family Studies Anuja Agrawal,2024-10-31 Within the social political and economic contexts existing in modern day India family is neither a simple remnant of tradition nor a domain merely representing insulated private lives Rather it is implicated in malleable yet overpowering structures relationships and practices If the family is a crucial site of ideological and imaginative investments playing a critical role in reproducing and defining contemporary selves and societies families are responsive to and constrained by the complex dynamics in which they are enmeshed Family relationships remain fundamental to survival and security even as policy and legislative imperatives as well as reproductive and communication technologies play a crucial role in reshaping them Critically interrogating the extant approaches to and concepts within the study of family Family Studies brings together diverse contributions by scholars from varied backgrounds to focus upon issues central to the conceptualization of family and their implications for Indian society The chapters in this volume make a strong case for why family as an ideological construct and families as a multitude of lived relationships should continue to be subjects of critical social scientific attention .,1976 Feminist Frontiers ,1983
