Working Together A Guide To Parent Involvement:

Working Together Anthony J. Coletta, 1999-08 Everyone benefits from parental involvement in children's education including teachers and administrators Anyone concerned with the role parents play in the education and development of children should read this book It contains the history of parental education an overview of intervention models and an excellent introduction to community support programs for parents This book is a must for any parent that wants to play an integral role in the education of their child

Working Together Anthony Coletta, 1976-12-01 Parent Involvement Handbook Barbara Holmes, Angela Seay, 2010-08 Parents are welcome and needed partners in the education of all children When parents collaborate with school personnel children have the support system they need to remain motivated and focused on education We value the input and participation of all parents and we are committed to doing a better job of helping parents to become more active partners in the school learning community What we have learned over the years is that children do better in school when their parents are actively involved with their learning We need parents to tell us how we can do more to ensure that they feel welcome in the school community First days of school should be a celebration for students and parents alike What most children ultimately become in life is fueled by the beliefs and support of parents We all were parented and we know just what a special connection a parent and child share Our goal is to access the wealth of information that parents have about learning and working with their children We are committed to accomplishing this goal

Dr Fannie Major McKenzie Superintendent Dallas County Public School System 429 Lauderdale St Selma AL 36701 Parental involvement is an essential component to the academic success of all students As educators we strive to connect content and parents in meaningful ways everyday It is imperative to utilize parental involvement strategies such as those described in this book to empower parents and enhance quality education in schools throughout the world Keith Stewart Superintendent Bullock County Schools Parental involvement is a contributing factor that is associated with the academic achievement of learners and enhancing community literacy This book consists of strategies that are helpful to all educators as we strive to improve the delivery of quality education This parental involvement resource should be a very helpful tool for parents and school personnel alike as we work to help all children realize their potential Mr Joseph Pettway Jr Principal Keith High School Dallas County Schools and School Board Member Wilcox County Schools As educators we should utilize this powerful resource to improve not only the current status of parental involvement but also to enhance the quality of education for children and families of our communities Mr J Moton Jr Community Involvement Specialist Educator Commissioner Wilcox County Alabama Parental involvement in children's education is necessary This book demonstrates how to implement practices that are effective methods for educators while working collaboratively to actively involve parents in the education of children in our communities Richard D Bryant Principal F S Ervin Elementary School A top 10 school in Alabama
