Interpretation, Contemporary and Classical Edwin Du Bois Shurter, Dwight Everett Watkins, 1926 Reading Graphic Design History David Raizman, 2020-12-10 Reading Graphic Design History uses a series of key artifacts from the history of print culture in light of their specific historical contexts It encourages the reader to look carefully and critically at print advertising illustration posters magazine art direction and typography often addressing issues of class race and gender David

Raizman's innovative approach intentionally challenges the canon of graphic design history and various traditional understandings of graphic design. He re-examines icons of graphic design in light of their local contexts, avoiding generalisation to explore underlying attitudes about various social issues. He encourages new ways of reading graphic design that take into account a broader context for graphic design activity rather than broad views that discourage the understanding of difference and the means by which graphic design communicates cultural values. With a foreword by Steven Heller

Gone are the days when rustic style meant fusty dried flower arrangements, antlers over a stone fireplace and acres of tartan. At its heart, the modern rustic look celebrates the fabric of a home from the roof beams to the brickwork. This style revels in earthy colours and rich textures in natural materials such as wood and stone and the ruggedly handsome bones of a building. In this book, stylist Emily Henson and writer Joanna Simmons first lead you through the Elements of the Modern Rustic look. Pure Rustic elegantly blends clean lines with muted shades of grey. Bohemian Rustic mixes texture and pattern with lush colour, while Pop Rustic teams raw wood with pops of neon and tongue-in-cheek artworks. Retro Rustic meanwhile brings a relaxed feel, showcasing beaten-up leather armchairs and brick floors. In Details, textiles, furniture, fabric and display are explored, while Living Spaces shows how Modern Rustic style translates beautifully to every room in the house.
